Collection Description

Biographical Note

John Eustace Denmark, the son of Malachi and Mary Ann Brannen Denmark, was born in Bulloch County, Georgia, on April 20, 1899. He was sent to Java as a Vice Consul with the State Department. He completed law school and passed the bar but went into banking. He was eventually Vice President of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta.

Mr. Denmark was a Mercer University trustee from 1957-1961 and sat on the President's Council from 1964-1968.

He married Leila Alice Daughtry on June 11, 1928. She was a Tift and Mercer graduate and one of the first female doctors in Georgia.

Scope and Content Note
