Collection DescriptionBiographical Note*

Frank Arthur Hooper III was born to Judge Frank Hooper, Jr., and Carolyn Newton Hooper on April 17, 1927. He served in the Navy during World War II and graduated from Davidson College, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and Furman University. He served as a pastor and missionary to Israel from 1956 to 1968. He was also a science teacher and a drug abuse counselor. Hooper was married to Marjorie Foster Hooper, and the couple had four children: Frank Hooper IV, Elizabeth, Carolyn, and Laura. Frank Arthur Hooper III died on August 27, 2010, in Hickory, North Carolina.

Scope and Content Note

The Frank Arthur Hooper III Collection consists of 29 carte de visites, 16 cabinet cards, and one memory book. The items were donated by Marjorie F. Hooper, widow of Frank Arthur Hooper, III, who was the grandson of Frank Arthur Hooper of the Mercer University class of 1885. During his grandfather's time at Mercer, he collected carte de visites of classmates and other students during that time. Most of the cabinet cards are unlabeled and are likely of family members
