3, 2, 1, ...

When the Kappa Alpha Fraternity is mentioned in any conversation, several comments usually arise—some of the repeated comments include details about the chapter house across from Shorter Hall. When KA is mentioned, one can't forget the "little old red barn", where several parties occur during the year. Also, students realize the Kappa Alpha Fraternity is preparing for the "Old South Ball" when bearded male students begin appearing around campus.

However, another comment should arise in discussing characteristics of the KA's and that is their ability to consistently win the Intramural championship in tennis. For the third year in succession the KA's have chopped down their tennis opponents as if they were merely counting 3,2,1...

By winning the Intramural Championship in tennis three years in succession, they deservingly retired the trophy to their chapter room.

BEAR CAGE

Bears Roar

By Lamar Ogleby

The Mercer Bears, who have grown quickly from cubs to fierce fighting bears in the past two games, were released in a basketball cage last Monday night and thoroughly defeated the heavily favored Stetson Hatters by the score of 81-77. On the previous Saturday night the Bears avenged an earlier defeat by trouncing Jacksonville University 82-77.

The Bears had four players in double figures led by Bob "jumping jack" Reeves who poured in 23 points. Don "Bones" Baxter followed closely behind with 17.

The game was extremely close in the final minutes, but the faculty, student body, and some Maconites cheered enough to help pull the Bears through. Let's keep supporting the Bears and help them keep their winning streak going. Their record is now 3-7.
