

Sigma Nu's spoof deodorant commercials at their open house.

SIGMA NU'S HOLD OPEN HOUSE, SPOOF ADS

The men of Sigma Nu Fraternity held their annual open house for all of the local sororities and fraternities in the Sigma Nu suite in Shorter Hall, Thursday, April 15. This year's open house was worked up to be a spoof at the Ted Mack Original Amateur Hour Show. The MC and impersonator of Ted Mack was Sigma Nu's own Richard C. Hearn who managed to keep the guests laughing in between the acts.

The talent consisted of six groups doing different, humorous or semi-serious acts. Leading off the show was Duncan Stoddard who played his accordion. He was followed by a commercial for Ban Deodorant, comically done by Sid Hopkins and Jon Fraker.

The next act was by Bill Thielemann who demonstrated his wonderful ability to immitate trees. Bill was followed by Robert Tropp and Bill McIntosh who did another commercial, this one for Crest tooth paste. The show was capped off by a group called the Slaughter House Four, and made up of brothers Bill Smiley, Melton Culpepper, Tom Tippett and Jay Brewster. Although this act was interrupted by a slight demonstration, it ended for another year a successful open house for Sigma Nu.

Several honored guests were present at the Sigma Nu open house. These were Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Morgan (Mr. Morgan, past commander and 50 year brother gave to Sigma Nu its all-diamond Sweetheart pin worn by Miss Liz Potter, Sweetheart) others were, Mr. Aubrey Floyd, Miss Frances Floyd and Janet Dawson, pledge sweetheart.

Sigma Mu Names Eligables

Sigma Mu, Mercer's honor fraternity, has announced the names of students qualifying for membership this year. New senior members are Karen Kennedy, Nancy Hendricks, Anne Johnson, James Lowe, Lena Rudder. Juniors are Nelda Chapman, Betty Jo Freeman, George Kitchens, and Ruth Elkins. New faculty members are Dean Garland Taylor and Dr. Clare Furse. Faculty members who are members of Phi Beta Kappa or Sigma Xi elsewhere or who were student members of Sigma Mu at Mercer are eligible.

Initiation for new members will take place Monday, April 26 in 814 S.C. followed by a banquet at the Pinebrook Inn. Mr. David Mincey, attorney at law and former Mercer faculty member, will give the banquet address on "Sources of the Law and Need for Dominance of the Rule of Law."

heart. The pinning ceremony at Mary Erwin Porter Hall Thursday, April 15, began Cathy's reign as "Sweetheart of old M.I.M.A."

Miss Talton

She entered Mercer in 1963 and became a sister in M.I.C.A. the same year. Miss Talton is active in all phases of B.S.U. work. She has not definitely decided upon her major, and yet feels strongly toward the fields a sociology and psychology. At the end of this school year she will leave for Washington and Oregon where she will serve as a Southern Baptist Summer Missionary.

A NEW PROGRAM OF INTEREST TO

MEN

It isn't easy to become an officer in the United States Army. Only the best young men are selected. The training and course of study are demanding.

But if you can qualify—and you should find out if you can—you will receive training which will put you a step ahead of other college graduates. Army ROTC training will give you experience that most college graduates do not get—in leading and managing other men, in organizational techniques, in self-discipline and in speaking on your feet. This kind of experience will pay off in everything you do the rest of your life.

Army ROTC has a new program designed specifically for outstanding men who already have two years of college, and plan to continue their college work. During your junior and senior years in this program, you will receive $40 per month. Want to find out more about the program? Simply send in the coupon below, or see the Professor of Military Science if you are now attending an ROTC college. There's no obligation—except the one you owe to yourself.

If you're good enough to be an Army Officer, don't settle for less
