

GOLF TEAM ENDS SEASON

The Mercer golf team finished the season this year with a 4-6-2 record losing the last two matches to Ga. Southern and West Georgia.

The two matches on which the team has lost, however, were the win over Presbyterian College in Macon by a score of 14-13, and facing P. O. on their home course 13 1/2 - 18 1/2. Presbyterian College, who won the South Carolina Intercollegiate Golf Championship this year, had excellent golfers but could just not get it going for them when they played Mercer. Other teams that the Mercer team defeated were Augusta College 12 1/2 - 7 1/2, West Georgia in the first match 20-6, and Georgia Southern in the first match 18-9. The other the game against Etahline College by a score of 9-9.

Members of the team this year were Ed Everett, a junior who played No. 1 man and had the low match score of 68, Bobby Johnson, a senior who played No. 2, Jay Hartger, a sophomore who played No. 3, Gene Borham, a freshman who played No. 4, Jim Garson, senior, playing No. 5, and Bill Axtator, sophomore, playing No. 6. During the latter part of the year, junior Vean Massey joined the squad and earned the position of No. 3 man.

All of the golfers earned letters this year, with two men becoming two-year lettermen: Ed Everett and Jay Harper. All others were first-year lettermen.

CONGRATULATIONS to the GRADUATES

Mercer students will certainly be missed this summer. See You in September.
