E's View Holidays: Beaches and Blondes

The Leos had a party with the ATO's Friday at F.O.P. Lodge and several unusual observances were made. First of all Mercer forward, Steve Moody, an element of surprise personified, was seen eating the decorations. Harry Moore, fugitive from the closet, had a date (and on Saturday night too!). The Geech was kicking while Bro. Harper disappeared in the Gray Ghost. The A-berg finds that for parties the Geech's back seat can't be beat.

One final observance of interest was that of PT-108 making tracks for home as Clepper moved in on Judy.

Tepo is pinned to Linda Allen (hey Topper, how are things back home?). Gerber feels bad that he is the only batchelor in the apartment now that Rut is pinned to Connie Crow, but Bro. John Moore said that he would try to act single as was evident Friday night.

As finals approach the brothers begin to look forward to Spring holidays and the beaches again. One brother in particular, the Greek, sees great hope in Spring vacation as a chance to regain a title which was lost last March in Daytona to "The Eastman Flash." The big question is which one will be sub-tabled first. Early forecasts give the Greek slim odds.

Snakes Seek Dry(?) Ground For Party

This past week-end proved very successful for several Snakes: Steve Binns pinned Nancy Smith; Steve Voigt pinned Deby B.B. Buck — after a couple of more trips to F.S.U., Steve is liable to come back engaged!

Thus far the Snakes have been undefeated in volleyball, having been victorious over MIMA, Kappa Sigma, SAE, and the peach-fuzzed KA's. Sigma Nu is looking forward very much to this week-end with the annual pledge-brother party being held on Saturday night. The Snakes will probably get "warmed up" on Friday night and continue until Sunday morning — no matter how cold it is, I'm sure Jack Dozier will receive the "Safe Driver's Award" this year — after all — he's only had two wrecks in the White Knight! However, I must add that Ken Strassen is still a strong contender — we'll have to wait and see what happens over the Spring Holidays.

This week's "B.H.A." went down to the wire, but Charlie Whitaker came roaring back to Mercer Sunday afternoon with a lavalier in his hand — Congratulations Charlie!, you get this week's "Brown Helmet Award."

Five Initiated Into Pi Kappa Phi Frat.

The Pi Kapps initiated five boys into the colony Saturday night. They are Ray Jones, Richard oecker, Steve Pankau, Bryan Dowling, and Frank Norman.

Last Saturday night we had our annual Interfraternity Jersey Party, which was a great success. The party was held at Kraft Lake, and the "Staffs" from Atlanta played.

Also at the party brother Tad Mollenkamp was thrown in the lake. He and Marilyn Payne of Alpha Gamma Delta have both been officially dunked.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"HE'S THE FIRST PLEDGE WE'VE EVER GRANTED A SPECIAL PRIVILEGE — HIS OLE MAN OWNS A BREWERY."

Rebs Turn To Ski

The KA's trooping it to Gatlinburg were greeted with rain, no now, and a deficient abundance of dateless beauties, so they retired to their chalets for lunch — molded frankfurters. Brother Brenner did profit from some instruction concerning Robin Hood; Brother Trask interrupted some lady's studying; Brother Phillips struck out; and Dancing Dave established his affinity toward locked doors.

Meanwhile, at the FSU debate tournament, Brother Tom Cauthorn was racking up the honors: Finalist in impromptu speaking, novice division; member of the 1st place novice team; and member of the 1st place negative team, novice division.

At Mercer, troop 59 scored two out of two.

Week before last the Rebels defeated ATO and Lambda Chi in volleyball.

Brother Jimmy Dowdy has pinned Gail Jasiewicki.

Alpha Gams Light Up The Sweet

It was candlelighting time again in the Alpha Gam Suite and two more Alpha Gams are lavaliered — Sarah Hackney to Kyle Carter, ATO, and Marilyn Payne to Tad Mollenkamp, Pi Kapp. Congratulations!

Once more Alpha Gam claimed the spotlight as Sandy Burnam received her White Roses and pin upon being chose Lambda Chi Alpha Sweetheart. Also, Milly Cole was elected to be a member of her court.

Some former Alpha Gams at

Mercer came back for a visit week-end before last. Everyone was glad to see Nancy Fulcher Cooley, Nancy De Ryke, and Jan Robinson back.

Ellen Guinn was a member of the Mercer Junior Debate Team that won first place at the Florida State Tournament.

Sue Walker was among four people who represented Mercer at the Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament in Tampa this past weekend. After she and her partner placed second in the Mercer Tournament, they placed third in the Region 6 tournament at the University of South Florida.

A "Hope"-ful Month For Phi Mu Project

During the month of February the Phi Mu's have launched a social service project centered around the Hospital Ship S. S. Hope. Project HOPE, health opportunity for people everywhere, has launched international missions to countries including Viet Nam, teaching and training local medical personnel of various nations. It began in the fall of 1958 when President Dwight D. Eisenhower asked a prominent heart specialist, Dr. William B. Walsh to initiate a "people-to-people program." This symbol of friendship and medical mercy was adopted as Phi Mu's National Philanthropy in 1963. At the National Convention held this past summer, the Phi Mu Fraternity was recognized as being the largest contributing organization to S. S. Hope. In doing their part, the Phi Mu's here this month have carried out various projects to raise their share in the yearly contribution to the S. S. Hope.

Sandra Burnam Is New Crescent Girl

This past weekend Lambda Chi held its annual White Rose Weekend. Friday night saw the initiation of ten charter members of the Order of the White Rose. Sandra Burnam. This organization is the highest honor Zeta-Omega Zeta can bestow upon a young lady.

Saturday night was highlighted by the announcing of our Crescent Girl and her court.

The ladies initiated into the Order of the White Rose were: Mrs. Virginia Hunter, Miss Harriet Brown, Miss Pam Smith, ADPI, and our outgoing Crescent Girl, and Miss Carolyn Row, all of Mercer; Miss Cissy Boylston, Miss Carolyn Earl, Miss Ina Davis, Miss Valerie Messick, Miss Nancy Lewis, and Miss Jean Russell, all of Wesleyan College.

Saturday night the "Chis" rocked out to the sounds of the LITTLE BOY BLUES of Cuthbert at the Dempsey Hotel. At the party Brother Ratley joined a long list of lost brothers when he surrendered his pin to Miss Barbara Massey of Emmanuel College. During the intermission the officers for the coming year were installed by our new alumnus advisor and chancellor, Coach Claude Smith.

The climax of the evening was the naming of our new Crescent Girl and her court. The members of the court were: Miss Harriett Brown, Miss Milly Cole, Alpha Gamma Delta; Miss Nancy Lewis, Wesleyan College; and Miss Kat Landis, also of Wesleyan. Miss Sandra Burnam was named as our Crescent Girl for the coming year. Miss Burnam is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta.

Sunday brought the very successful weekend to a close with church attendance by brothers and dates at the First Baptist Church.

In athletics, Lambda Chi won its first volleyball game in two straight decisions over the Afro-American Ministerial Association. The winning streak was ironically ended by the bearded prophets of the Old South.

MICA Plans Big?? For Spring Quarter

Last Tuesday night, Teena Harris, LaNe Johnson, and Ann Deason received their arrows. We're proud of our new pledges.

We hear that the pledges are working industriously on their project. Curiosity is really being aroused from all this.

Cathy Talton and Carolyn Cook spent the weekend in Columbus with Catherine Jarrett.

Laurie Shalley Thomson spent Friday night with us. It was good to see her again!

Mila LaSala and Dee MacArthur went to the University of Georgia this weekend to the crusade for Christ.

Faye Tyson, Carol Bishop, and Linda Huddleston went to Atlanta this weekend for the SNEA convention. Linda and Faye helped install the new state officers. Carol Bishop ran for secretary.

MICA is looking forward to something big in the planning for spring quarter.

Black Garter Fails To Scare ADPI's

The ADPI's would like to recognize Steve Moody who played his last Mercer basketball game Saturday night. Congratulations Steve, for a wonderful four years! We would like to also recognize the cheerleaders for their conscientious support throughout the season.

The ADPI's have already begun planning their spring weekend which will be held April 28. The Kaotics have been engaged for Friday night.

Claudia Stansel is now pinned to Mike Crook, Kappa Sigma.

Suzanne Thornton has been elected the best dressed girl on campus by the dorm council. She will now go to the finals sponsored by Glamour magazine.

The sisters aren't afraid of the Black Garter!

Lodge Goes Up Grades Go Down

The pledge party recently given by the Kappa Sigma pledges at Kraftman's Lodge proved to be a tremendous success. All of the brothers were well pleased with the decorations and execution of the program. Especially joyous was brother Davison, who won the weird hat contest with his original black lace (size 36D) ear muffs.

In the ball and chain column brother Mike Crook is pinned to Claudia Stansell, ADPI at Mercer, and brother A. D. Howard is pinned to Judy Samples of Augusta College.

Jim McCallum, a senior brother of Alpha Beta Chapter, recently starred in the Mercer production of "The Great God Brown" and was given excellent acclaims in all the reviews.

Scholastically, the Crescents are in third place in the men's overall fraternity average, but it appears that with the addition of the color TV, the pool table, and the new juke box, everyone is on the verge of flunking out.
