ADPi Initiates

Last week was an exciting one for the pledges of Alpha Delta Pi as they performed their last duties before becoming sisters. The week was highlighted by the pledge retreat Saturday morning at the home of Maggie Moran. From the pledge songs presented both the best and the funniest song was won by a "swinging" group consisting of Pam Grey, Claudia Hamrick, Liz Cliett, Sally Farrar, and Toni Bosheers. Ginny Sherran and Martha Moss added a little "pop" to the retreat and everyone had a wonderful time.

Saturday afternoon the following girls were initiated into Alpha Delta Pi Sorority: Toni Bosheers, Liz Cliett, Lois Davis, Leatha Edgeman, Meg Gokee, Pam Gray, Pam High, Mary April McCready, Margaret Nix, Laura Shouse, and Sharon Young.

Sunday evening a banquet was held at the Davis House Cafeteria for all sisters, pledges, and promisees. At the banquet it was announced that the pledges had elected Stiles Allen as model sister. The sisters also announced model pledge was Margaret Nix. Highest scholars are the big-little sister team of Mary April McCready and Cathy Shouse, and the best essay award went to Susan Perkins.

There was even more excitement among the Alpha Delta Pi's as they watched LaRose Powell, last year's Miss Macon, crown another Alpha Delta Pi, Ann Stanford. Ann will go on to the Miss Georgia Contest in Columbus, June 14, with all our best wishes.

Mary Jo Allen and Mary April McCready also did a fine job of representing ADPi and we are extremely proud of them.

Two ADPi's are now owners of lavaliers! Susan Wisman is finally lavaliered to Bruce Gibson. Linda Clark and a Pi Kappa Phi, Richard, are now lavaliered. Congratulations to all!

The sisters would like to thank the pledges for the surprise party they gave Tuesday evening. You are wonderful, Pledges!

ATO's Act

Congratulations to Brother Ed Hackney who is now engaged to Clara Whitlock, Alpha Gam. According to a reliable source, "It's great".

Also a late congratulation is in order to Walt Chandler who is engaged to Linda Ferguson.

It seems now that a lot of RPB has been transferred. It is also good to announce that Brother Seney has not had an accident in over a week — Congratulations Gary.

Alpha Gam's Election

Spring quarter for Alpha Gamma Delta means the installation of new officers. Those installed on April 4 were: President — Ruth Wilheit, First Vice-President — Sandy Burnam, Second Vice-President — Jo Brown, Recording Secretary — Milly Cole, Corresponding Secretary — Terry Butt, Treasurer — Cathy Miles, Activities Chairman — Kathy Snow, Altruistic Chairman — Lynda Vaughan, Editor — Willa Dale Meeks, Guard — Marilyn Payne, Rush Chairman — Janie Ball, Membership Chairman — Pam Warwick, Chaplain — Clara Whitlock, House Chairman — Jacque Ross, Scribe — Nancy Massey, Standards — Carol Anne Wright, Social Chairman and Panhellenic Delegate — Judy Abrams.

Alpha Gam is very proud of her two representatives in the Miss Macon Pageant, Jo Brown and Frances Williams.

Congratulations are in order for several of our sisters who have had candlelightings recently. Wedding bells will ring in August for Clara Whitlock and Ed Hackney, ATO. Gayle Gagnahatz is lavaliered to ATO, Mike Hawkins, and Sandy Orr is lavaliered to Lamar Sizemore, KA.

We are also quite proud of our new pledges and promisees. Linda Barfield, Linda Cosby, Barbara Dean, Pat Miller, Betty Smith and Bev Swords are our new pledges while Andrea Jackson and Sharon Vise are our promisees.

Louise Ash, Linda Ferguson, Ellen Quinn, Dorothy Hardage, Andrea Jackson, Renner Smith and Clara Whitlock have been named to the Dean's List for Winter quarter.

APO Elects New Officers

Alpha Phi Omega is in full swing this year. Our new advisor for this year is Mr. Barbee from the math department. He has worked very hard for the members in helping us plan our activities for the year.

On April 20, 1967, the brothers of Alpha Phi Omega elected and installed their new officers for 1967-68. They were: President — Steve Woodruff; 1st Vice President — Bob Porter; Pledge Marshals — Scott McCall and Bill Kennedy; Secretary — Dan Thigpen; Treasurer — Jim Mathis; Publicity Chairman — Allen Brinkerhoff.

On April 22, 1967, the brothers went to the Macon Hospital and painted the children's play room. Up coming projects for our fraternity will be our help on Alumni Day, May 6, 1967, and the sponsoring of the Ugly Man Contest on May 15, 1967.

Also included is our ushering of the play Kismet on April 27 and 28, 1967 at the Chapel.

Pecker Man Back

Election week found six rebel caps thrown into the political ring, with four victories: Tom Cauthorn, Cluster Editor; Gary Brenner, Junior Class President; Martie Leverett, Appropriations Committee; and Ed Bacon, Freshman Advisor.

Newly initiated brothers are Elliot Barrow, Rick Cogdell, David Brandon, Sam Gillis, Johnny Grimes, Randy Lanier, George Newburn, Lamar Sizemore, Al Stewart, and Steve Wright.

Congratulations go to Ann Stanford, ADPi, Miss Macon. Ann was pledge sweetheart of last year's K.A. pledge class, is currently a member of the '66-'67 Rose Court, and is pinned to Bill Simmermon, No. 1 of Kappa Chapter. Congratulations also go to Barbara Elliot, Chi O, for being first runner up in the Miss Macon Pageant. Barbara was recently pinned to Frank Lanneau.

While we're on pinning, we might as well mention Lamar Sizemore's lavaliering Sandy Orr, Alpha Gam; George Newburn's lavaliering Donna Vestal and the mighty fall of lover-man Phillips to Cathy Overstreet, Wesleyan. Jimmy Pipkin has pinned Marva Rackley, University of Tennessee; and Cynthia Lee Johnson, Christian College, Columbia, Missouri, is now wearing Screaming Ed's pin.

Monday, the K.A.'s defeated the E's in baseball 9-5 and by the way, thanks to pan Grimes, the rebs left the lions holding a handful of pie and second place in the Greek Relays.

Good thing initiations and rides from ABAC don't come on the same weekend, eh Big White Hunter? Pecker Man dropped in on Kappa Chapter before taking off to OCS.

Pi Kapps Are Up And Running Hard

Pi Kappa Phi has elected a slate of new officers. They are: President, Hollis Lewis; Treasurer, Richard Kiley; Secretary, Ray Jones; Warden, Steve Pankau; Chaplain, Frank Norman; Social Chairman, Tony Carfora; Rush Chairman, J. D. Askew.

Initiated as Brothers in Pi Kappa Phi were Tony Carfora and Kieth Murphy. Promisees were Chris Zorn, Dennis Overcash and Don Van Buskirk.

We lost our first game of the softball season by the skin of our teeth, to A.T.O.

Snake Pit Opens

As usual, I find it necessary to list those who have gotten pinned or lavaliered. Even though their names were included in last week's Cluster, a few outside comments still seem fitting.

Nathan Davis lavaliered Jane Steed, Phi Mu. Nathan had a hard decision to make on this one, but the flip of a coin aided his choice tremendously.

Ned Hastings is making a year of it; first he lavaliered Donna Aahman, and now he's pinned; what's next, Ned?

Well, we did beat the Science Center. We finally moved in our lodge this past week-end — "it ain't too damn tuff." We are all very proud of it and cordially invite the student body to see it — admission tickets can be bought from any brother. (Well, we've got to pay for it!) When you come, bring the best reason in the world.

The first party of Spring Quarter proved to be a tremendous success — with the Snakes being entertained by the Phantoms at Kraft's Lake, by the demonstration of the breast stroke by Nathan Davis and by Randy Cox's demonstration of the back stroke. Several of the Snakes also enjoyed the movies provided them by Kraft Papermill Employees.

On the softball field the Snakes have begun another victorious season as they defeated the Lawyers, led by all-star pitcher John Seavering, who put a lot of the color into the game.

Chi O Initiates

Congratulations to our 13 newly initiated sisters: Janet Farmer, Robyn Peek, Beth Thomas, Linda Beebe, Ruby Ann Eberhart, Betsy Brannan, Tish Eubank, Marie Lanneau, Joan Wisham, Linda Baker, Marianna Moore and Joan Kyllonen, Model Pledge.

Chi O cleaned up on the SGA slate with 6 victories. They are: Janie Baker — SGA Secretary, Sara Smith — Treas. Senior Class, Stephanie Edgar — Treas. Junior, Tish Eubank — Sec. Soph Class, Judy Force, Martiel Babbit — Appropriations.

Chi Omega has 5 entrants in the Miss Mercer Contest. Martiel Babbit and Nancy Williams — MIMA. Mary Lucas — ATO, Ann Pearson and Linda McElreath — Chi O.

Congratulations to Stephanie Edgar who is pinned to Herbie Rivers, SAE; and to Barbara Elliot who is pinned to Frank Lanneau, KA.

Judy Howell was recently elected secretary of SE division of W.B.G.A.

Martiel Babbit is a new member of the Honor Council.

Tennis Team Falls To Ga.

The Mercer Bears' tennis team was defeated Monday afternoon April 24 by the University of Georgia Bulldogs. The Bears showed the fruits of hard practice, playing impressive precision tennis but were no match for the heavily favored Bulldog netters. Georgia's line-up includes many SEC finalists and playing in the number one spot for the Bulldogs is Bill Shippey, 1966 SEC Fresh Champion.

The most heart breaking set of the day was between Mercer's Steve Nathanson and Bill Shippey. Steve, who boasted a 10-2 win lost record before Monday's match, played superior tennis in the opening points of each game. Steve often got Shippey down 40-0 only to lose the game in a flurry of brilliant play by UGa's number one. It didn't seem to be Steve's day as he went home in defeat

6-0, 6-2. The action of the day was lived by the presence of Charlie Coe who came out of retirement to team up with Nathanson in the doubles competition. Good that Charlie, last year's number two man for the Bears, displayed brilliant serve that astounded fans and opponents with ferocity. We are sure to see Charlie contributing his sparkling performance on Mercer courts in the future.

Mercer has only one home match left, so get out and support the Bears!

Here is the remaining schedule:
May 2 Auburn at Auburn
May 3 Ga. Southern at Mercer
May 13 Ga. Southern at Statesboro
May 16 Emory at Atlanta

Phi Mu Has Weekend

This past month has been full of activity for the Phi Mu's — with initiation, Mother's Club, Phi Mu weekend, lavaliers, pins, rings, and elections. The Phi Mu Mother's Club, a semi-annual event, met the weekend of April 14, 15, and 16. There was a banquet on Saturday night. Entertainment was provided by the Washboard Band and Lynn Goyen (as Phyllis Diller). Sunday everyone attended Vineville Methodist Church. Initiation of new mothers was held that afternoon, thus ending a wonderful weekend for the sisters as well as their mothers.

April 21 and 22 was Phi Mu weekend. It was highlighted by a semi-formal dance on Friday night at the Elk's Club with the Hysterics playing. Saturday brought a cookout and dance at Kraftman's Lake. The In-men played that night.

Deanna Stone became lavaliered to Doug Clepper, SAE, and Callie Norman is lavaliered to a Sigma Chi at Georgia Tech. Donna Ashman is lavaliered to Ned Hastings, Sigma Nu, and Lynn Highsmith is now engaged to Leo Deas.

Three Phi Mu's were elected to SGA offices. They are: Lynn Goyen, Secretary of Senior Class; Dori Ripley, Dorm Representative; and Nancy Smith, Appropriations Committee. Congratulations to Diane Martin, Judy Tibbets and Deanna Stone who are newly elected Little Sisters of Minerva.
