Pharmacy School Names Dean's List

Fourteen students at Mercer University's Southern School of Pharmacy made the Dean's List for scholastic achievement in the fall quarter.

To qualify a student must carry a full course of 12 or more quarter hours and have a B plus average in the courses.

Seniors named to the Dean's List were Robert Bledsoe of Austell; Richard Jackson and Gayle Harkrider Morgan, both of Atlanta; Jackie Lane of Iron City, Alice Jane Maughen of Gadsden, Ala.; May Obi of Jacksonville, Fla., and Lee R. Perdue of Wrens.

Making the list from the junior class were Michael Sam Brown of East Point, James Burgess of Whitley City, Ky., and Don Douthit of Macon.

Sophomores on the list were Philip Braeur of Andrews, N. C.; Sherald Jackson of Sumter, S. C.; Michael Leach of Richmond, Ky., and Gordon Patton of College Park.

Two sophomores made the grade average but were not on the list because of carrying only 11 hours. They were Terry Crawford of Tampa and Dallas Petrey of Williamsburg, Ky.

Law School Names Nineteen Students

Nineteen students of the Walter F. George School of Law at Mercer University were on the Dean's list for Distinguished Students for the fall quarter.

They achieved a grade of 78 or higher (a B is 75 to 84) and comprise 19 percent of the student body in the law school, according to Dean James C. Quarles.

The George B. Connell Memorial Award, consisting of a cash prize awarded at the end of every quarter to the student achieving the highest grade during the quarter, was won by Otis Hale Almand Jr. of Macon.

Those making the Dean's List were: James Adams Jr., Otis Hale Almand Jr., Miss Helen Berenthen, Dupont K. Cheney, Mrs. Deryl D. Dantzier and Gus H. Small Jr., all of Macon.

Jacob Beil and Solon Davis Laney, both of Columbus; Alton Monroe Adams of Toccoa, Richard Allen Childs of Pearson, Jeffrey D. Dunn of Jacksonville, Arthur Curtis Farrar of Douglas and Benjamin M. Garland of Jackson.

Edward J. Harrell of Hawkinsville, Carl Candler Jones III of Decatur, Guerry R. Moore of Atlanta, George Thomas Williams of Vidalia and Miss Emily J. Wortman of Eustis, Fla.

New Tests Devised For Unloved, Etc.

By Debra Rogers

If you are unloved, unwanted, and indistinguishable

if the electric door at the super market closes on you.

if a fraternity brother sees your badge pin and asks if you are a pledge at Georgia.

if you fall over the Chapel balcony and while you are recuperating in the hospital, you are notified of your recent placement on Chapel probation.

if you always get the study room in the library with no graffiti.

if when you finally get a study room in the library with graffiti, you can't understand it.

if when you're home for Thanksgiving for the first time talking with your neighbor about Mercer and she replies, "Why that's in Macon. I didn't know you'd been away."

1st. Hightower Awarded Medal

Sergeant First Class Willie L. Hightower, a newly assigned instructor in the Department of Military Science at Mercer University, was presented the Bronze Star Medal (second award) in a recent ceremony.

Sergeant Hightower was cited for exceptionally meritorious service while stationed with the 1st Cavalry Division in Vietnam from August, 1967, to last August.

Sergeant Hightower, a native of Macon, is married to the former Mrs. Mills, also of Macon. He was assigned to Mercer University in August. He previously served in the military between 1962 and 1967 as a military instructor at Lanier High School.

The award was presented by Lt. Colonel Robert M. Brumbilla, professor of military science at Mer-

SGA Evaluates Orientation

Minutes

The first meeting of the SGA for Winter Quarter was held Monday, January 6.

One of the first proposals made was to evaluate this year's orientation.

The SGA members were asked by the president to prepare reports of their activities this year so that they might be used by the people filling their positions next year.

Dr. Margaret Smith, a guest of SGA, whose job is to help students across the nation, was asked to study and review the Office of Student Personnel at Mercer.

Macon Junior College was voted by the Student Government to be admitted to SUSKA.

Homecoming was discussed and the prices were given as $2.00 per person for the dance, $1.00 per person for the game and $3.50 per person for the concert.

The delegates voted to go to the SUSKA Convention in Atlanta were Bill Ingram, Jinx Schwencke, Steve Richey, Phil Corner, Bob Collins, Blanchie Smith, Ed Bacon, Cal Gough, Shirley Harrison, and Chuck Brewer. Absentees are Rick Davison, Curtis Echols, Angie Lord, and David Bottoms.

Resolution

WHEREAS, many students at Mercer are employed by the University, and

WHEREAS, there has long been complaint pertaining to the irregular payment of student wages, and

WHEREAS, it is the responsibility of the Student Government Association to safeguard the interests of all Mercer students, be it hereby

Resolved, that the Student Government Association insists on the consistent payment of said salaries on a certain date of each month, this date to be designated by the Business Office and made known immediately to all students employed by the University.
