

DELTA SIGMA FRAT INSTALLED

 the Delta Sigma Pi and Ernest C. Ellis, Macon, comprised the initiation committee. Mr. Wright presided at the ceremonies.

Mr. Ellis, who was a member of the Theta chapter at Tech, is largely responsible for the commercial local being taken into the Delta Sigma Pi. Since the local was organized two-and-a-half years ago he has acted as intermediary between the local fraternity and the national organization.

All alumni and members of the Georgia Tech chapters of the Delta Sigma Pi were invited. As a result of this a large number were present, both at the initiation and banquet.

Large Number Initiated

Twenty-three active members and several pledges of the Alpha Lambda Epsilon were initiated by the Delta Sigma Pi. The banquet Saturday night at the Hotel Dempsey was attended by visiting brothers, members of the fraternity and their guests.

Dean Bradley Speaks

H. G. Wright, grand secretary of the Delta Sigma Pi, made the principal address of the evening. Short talks were also made by Ernest C. Ellis, Macon alumnus and W. J. Bradley, dean of the School of Commerce of Mercer.

Miss Dorothy Blackman, sponsor of the fraternity, was presented a beautiful fraternity pin, on behalf of the fraternity.

The Mercer chapter of the Delta Sigma Pi is to be known as the Alpha Tau chapter. Thomas Whaley, Shellman, Ga., is headmaster of the chapter.

Alpha Sigma Epsilon, local fraternity, was founded here in February, 1925, by a group of students which included L. J. Bowen, E. M. Gornily, J. N. Minchin and R. D. Smith. A year ago this month it petitioned Delta Sigma Pi and was granted a charter, March 5. The Delta Sigma Pi is the first national commercial fraternity to be installed at Mercer.

Founded Twenty Years Ago

The Delta Sigma Pi, national commercial fraternity, was founded at New York University School of Commerce, department of Accounts and Finance, on Nov. 7, 1907. It is a professional fraternity organized to foster the study of business in universities, to encourage scholarship and the association of students for their mutual advancement by research and practice; to promote closer affiliation between the commercial world and the students of commerce; and to further a high standard of commercial ethics and culture, and the civic and commercial welfare of the community.

WESLEY-ANNES GIVE TAKE-OFF

people for twenty-five cents.

Every year the junior class members of Wesleyan play the part of the Mercer boys that take part in the performance at Wesleyan. They will produce the act of most of the singers to a perfection. Some of them have harder parts to take because it is harder to take off some of the Mercer boys than others, but they make an attempt to do justice to all as they see them. The take-off is advertised by the Wesleyan girls as a Glee Club take-off to show the boys just how they looked to them as the Mercer Singers gave their performance a few weeks ago in the Municipal Auditorium.

The Wesleyan girls will have the same scenery that was used by the Glee Club and will also wear the same costumes. This is to make the take-off more real, and will add color to the plays and skits of the Glee Club.

Some of the main characters are: for Ralph Tabor, known as the Ivory King of Jazz, Miss Louise Ellis will give a splendid portrayal; for John Ira Bailey, Miss Elizabeth Mitzen, will sing "Give A Man A Horse and He Can Ride"; Miss Addie Funderburke will take the part of Hamilton Middlebrooks as a man of means on the trombone; and for the wailing tones that pour from the saxophone of Bob Lee, Miss Dot McKay will give her talent to put over the show; for Jack Murry with his melodious voice, Miss Funderburke will also show her talent as a singer.

As Noble Arnold, the Mercer comedian who was chosen by the Wesleyan Girls because he doesn't expectorate, Miss Virginia Cretl will perform. Riley McKay, known as the song and dance man of the Mercer Glee Club will be taken off by Miss McGeehee who with her talent of dancing will make the audience think it is Riley himself. Others on the Glee Club will be taken off as well as they play their part themselves. For Roy Metcalf Miss Addie Funderburke will again show her talent in the musical line.

For several years the Junior Class members of Wesleyan have been very successful in imitating the Mercer boys. Their shows have been well played and humorous. Each year the Mercer boys look forward to the take-off at Wesleyan so they can see themselves as others see them.

Bill: "How was the dance last night?"

Hank: "Oh, the lighting defects were wonderful!"

J.C. Penney Co. A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION-DEPARTMENT STORES

An Idea Paying Dividends To You

There are millions of people who have never heard of Kemmerer. It is not probable that more than a comparatively few thousand people will ever see Kemmerer.

And yet, in that small mining town up in the foothills of Wyoming, an idea was born in 1902 that has since been the means of saving many millions of dollars to great numbers of people.

When the first Store of this Nation-wide institution was opened, there were those who said that while its policies were ideal it could never prosper and be guided wholly by the principles of the Golden Rule.

But it did. It went on year after year, adding one branch store after another, serving more and more people, ever enhancing service and savings to the public, until today the activities extend from coast to coast. You are benefiting today from that idea.
