

WE'VE OFTEN HEARD--ONCE UPON A TIME

There was a

 Man who had

 A big job

 In a big school

 Where many men

 Were registered

 And there was a

 Big to-do over

 Him because he

 Had a bit of Trouble with

 The college

 Paper there

 And because of

 The fuss the Telegraph and

 The Enquirer-Sun

 Raved some too

 And then the Man who was

 At the big job

 Desk gave in

 Because he was

 On the wrong

 Side and the Students won out

 But the trouble was

 They said what

 They and others

 Thought--if the

 Cluster would

 Do the same would

 The Telegraph rave

 For us as hard?

 We are tempted to--

 Some day perhaps

 They will be tested

Modern smoking pleasure that never fails

THE smokers of this age are the most independent ever known. Accepting no hearsay, they have smoked out the facts. They have learned that the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos grown are rolled into Camels, that here is the incomparable blending for goodness, that Camels simply never tire the taste.

Camel is the cigarette that never fails to please the modern age. Regardless of how often you want the comfort of a smoke, of how steadily you light one after another, Camel will never fail you, never give you any but the finest thrill of smoking pleasure. This is why Camel's popularity, by far the largest in the modern world, keeps overwhelmingly in the lead. As modern taste becomes more insistent upon choice tobaccos, increasing millions discover Camel's incomparable mildness, smoothness and mellowness.

If you want the cigarette that's good to live with from morn to mid-night, the one that is the choice of the modern age, "Have a Camel!"
