

FROSH GILBERT IS ELECTED JANITOR

Freshman Drew Gilbert, after a keen and hotly contested race in the Ciceroian Literary Society hall Monday night, won the office of janitor for the society for the fall term.

The election was held by freshmen only and none but the frosh were allowed to enter the race. Freshman Robert Calpepper was the only outstanding opponent. Rat Gilbert had. Both candidates made eloquent pleas, denouncing themselves as worthy of such honorable and coveted office.

Eight New Members

The strength of the society was increased by eight at the meeting.

In the debate, the affirmative side won with a two-to-one decision. The subject of the debate was: Resolved, that the prohibition question should be an issue in the next presidential election.

A feature of the meeting was the announcement of the "Eller's Medal," which will be given to the new member who is the most beneficial to the society during the entire year. The medal is to be given by Eugene Eller, circulation manager of the Mercer Cluster.

The program was finished by two-minute speeches from freshmen. Subjects selected by them were college training, the art of public speaking and advantages of the Ciceroian literary society.

Jabber

Cherio, old dears, here we are back at the old typewriter after a slight vacation of three months. We did not get a chance to write last week, so we cannot tell you how glad we are to see the freshmen here and all the other dumb animals back. We should have told that last week. But to all the old men we will say that we are glad to be back, and though we did not get anything worse than poison ivy on our week-end, we sure enjoyed the trip to Savannah.

Speaking of week-ends. Did you know that a hat was like a short horse party? It usually covers the week-end!

'Sfunny thing, but every time a car gets stalled we always get out and raise the engine hood, even if we are only out of gas, and look at it like the dickens. It's the truth, ain't it?

It is a terrible thought, but when we asked a certain student if he was going to Savannah for the week-end, he remarked, "No, I'd better get drunk at home this week-end!"

Speaking of other colleges (but mentioning no names) we are forced to say, "As they show, so shall we peep!"—nice ain't it, and terribly original.

Our gal at Wesleyan just naturally up and kicked us for good, or was it worse? At any rate she kicked us. We have come to the conclusion that there is no girl so low down, but what she can hoist her foot high enough to kick a fellow! And does it hurt?—yess bo, and how! Take a tip from us, freshmen, and leave the Wesleyan mammas alone!

Of Everything in General and Nothing in Particular.

The flag rush is coming off here Friday. A RIPPING time should be had by all—and how! Lucky it ain't a "fag" rush, somebody might get hurt!

Dean Jacobs said something about auto trouble in his class the other day, and how he hoped there would be no flat tires in his class. Had he but known it—he had a room full of them as he spoke.

We heard a funny story this summer about two boys that were caught stealing watermelons from a farmer. They had gotten almost away, when he cracked down at them with a shot gun, one of them got away but the other got hit—we thought we were gonna die for nearly two hours! Figure that one out, gol dern ye!

Advice to those who wish to buy whiskey in Macon—DON'T.

Says Clint Wilson, says he, "She is sure one dumb gal—almost as dumb as some people I know."

Quoth Phil Etheridge from the end of the table to Charlie Davis, "Charlie, why don't you defend yourself—slap his face!"

This was heard in a campus bull session: "Did you hear about the deaf and dumb gal who was attacked by a man?"

"No," what of it?

FRESHMEN ELECT LEADER FOR BATTLE

Billy Alderman, of Fort Myers, Florida, was elected head of the freshman rush team at a meeting of the first year class Tuesday night in the chapel building. Fifty freshmen volunteered to take part in the freshman-sophomore flag rush, which is to be held Friday afternoon.

At the class meeting it was decided to postpone election of officers until the beginning of the winter quarter. Tom Cobb, a senior, is supervisor of the freshman class, and he presides at all class meetings.

Two Committeemen Selected
Freshmen Hearn, of Eatonton, and Campbell, of Vienna, were selected as committeemen to assist Alderman in planning tactics the first year team will use in the rush.

A brief meeting of the sophomores was held in the library while the freshmen were planning their defeat. After both meetings, both classes staged an impromptu parade downtown and in front of Wesleyan.

"She broke three fingers calling for help!"

Pin, pip, laddies, we must be popping. We have an eight-thirty class for the first time in four years. Besides we are so ugly that we need the beauty sleep. Cherio, and other English expressions (now where have you heard that before? Sinful creatures, it was at the motion picture show was it not? There!)

WE MUST BEAT FURMAN

Before the Game is the Time to Win it

What a sight, on the afternoon of the game, to watch the cheering crowds, the waving flags, and to enter once again into the life of gay, irresponsible Youth.

But the Team knows that back of all the flags and the cheering are long practice days. Days of doing the same thing over and over until muscles ached with weariness. Days of hard grinding toil.

It is the same with a store. Back of the piles of merchandise which seem to have sprung up over night, back of our displays and everything we do, are years of work and study.

Football is your game—Merchandise is ours. Both require careful preparation before Success comes.

WE BOTH MUST WIN!!

turn to school this year.

Maynard Smith, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, was elected treasurer to serve for the next nine months. The other officers are John Binns, president, and Frank Caylor, vice-president.

Representative Group

The Pan-Hellenic Council is composed of two representatives from each of the fraternities that have been on the campus a year or more. It is for the purpose of handling all matters which concern the fraternities as a whole and not each individual chapter.

The council has before it for consideration at the present time, the matter of a proposed Fraternity Row, the land having been offered by the University at a 99-year lease, which will be renewable. That part of the campus which is on Adams street and just back of Gambrell Hall is the site proffered.

If the proposition goes through there will be nine fraternities to build houses of their own on this plot of ground. No definite action was taken on the matter, however, it being carried over for further consideration.
