

WESLEY-ANNES SPEAK OF 'RUSH'

Fair Sex Give Cluster Their Idea of Frosh Parade

Some think it's hot; some think it's not. That's the Wesleyan opinion of the annual sophomore drive. Seated about Chicken Chichester's gold plated tables in the Phari Monday, Wesley-Annies expressed various opinions concerning the recent flag rush and rat drive.

To be specific, the discussion or argument took place between Miss Elizabeth Joyner and Miss Florence Fort, both of Americus.

For Sophs

Miss Joyner said "The flag rush is something looked forward to every year at dear old Wesleyan. Nothing relieves the monotony of our lives more than to be entertained by the annual display of sophomore superiority over the freshman. The freshmen need to be brought down to earth. All young high school graduates come to college with the idea of 'big me' in their heads, so you see the rush removes all misconceptions they may have once had of themselves," she said looking at Miss Fort who is also a freshman. "There are numbers of funny happenings that we see when the parade reaches Wesleyan, but the funniest thing about the rush is not what the freshmen do or say but the dear 'cuties' themselves."

On the other hand, there are many Wesleyan students who think the rush and parade are useless, silly, and barbarous. Miss Fort led the opposition to the parade, which she said looked like a cattle drive. She said:

Upholds "Rats"

"The old sophomores are mean—that's all there is to it. They are too cruel to let live. We may laugh at them when they are forced to sing and cut-up, but we're for the freshmen any day. The sophomores are just a bunch of bullies who think they are great because they can beat on the frosh. I'd better not catch one hitting me like they hit one freshman I saw. I'm a freshman myself and I think our class deserves as many rights as the stuck-up sophomores."

"I think something ought to be done about it. I actually do."

HEADS OF CLUBS GATHER TUESDAY

Presidents' Club to Elect Officers at Initial Meeting
