

Sept. 30th, 61

Dear Brother Marcus.

I would have written a letter, but did not have the time, as I had to stand guard yester day. I only let you know my accounts in Penfield, The only other account I have, is:- To J. L. Tarwater 2 [?] $12.50 $12.30. I gave you the account in Rome, but I presume you forgot it.

I receive two nice comfortable blankets from Sis. Susan at the same time I got those from Twiggs. I gave one to Henry. We have five a-piece now.

Love to All.

Yours &c.

Kit. C. Anderson

Henry has gone on guard to day.
