

KAPPA PHI KAPPA TO BE INSTALLED

Ten Charter Members To Become Associated With Educational Fraternity

Phi Sigma Epsilon, local educational fraternity, will be installed as a chapter of Kappa Phi Kappa, national order, at 2 o'clock, Saturday, April 6. Ten members of the local fraternity will be initiated into membership in the national society.

Undergraduate members and alumni of Phi Sigma Epsilon will be initiated at the installation ceremony. The new chapter of Kappa Phi Kappa will entertain with a banquet in the evening in honor of the alumni and the retiring sponsor, Miss Ruth Bickerton, of Macon.

The following will become charter members of the Mercer chapter: Dean Peyton Jacob, Joe R. Bobbitt, Ware T. Beall, J. M. Lancaster, J. M. France, Gerry Bowen, Chandos E. Langston, Baily Davis, Tom Callaway, and J. D. Ramsey.

Officers for the new chapter will be elected on the afternoon of the installation. The present officers of Phi Sigma Epsilon are Mr. Davis, president; Mr. Beall, vice president, and Mr. Langston, secretary and treasurer.

Easter Program

An Easter program entitled "The First Day of the Week" was rendered at the home of Miss Frances Ellis by the Young Woman's auxiliary to the Woman's Missionary Society of Mercer last Wednesday evening at 4 o'clock.

The program as presented was: Devotional—"The Girl I Mean to Be—Obedient," Mrs. J. W. Marshall, district young people's leader of the Rehoboth Association; "The Resurrection from John's Standpoint," by Miss Reba Lowe; "The Message of Every Sunday," by Miss Leland Cooper; "The Story of The Resurrection from Mary's Standpoint," by Miss Julia Webb; and "The Difference the Resurrection Makes to Me and to You," by Mrs. R. B. Harrison.

After the program a half hour social was enjoyed by the guest. Miss Frances Ellis is president of the Mercer Y. W. A.

B. Y. P. U. Course

A B. Y. P. U. study course under the directorship of Miss Leland Cooper, Mercer's student counselor, was held at the Tattall Square Baptist church this week. The study course, Miss Cooper stated, was offered primarily for Mercer students who form the larger portion of the membership of the B. Y. P. U.'s in this church.

The books taught at the study course included: "The Senior B. Y. P. U. manual," taught by professor H. L. Batts; "The Plan of Salvation," taught by Mrs. Katherine Germany; and "General Organization," taught by Miss Leland Cooper; "Intermediate manual," taught by Horace Harwell; "Meaning of Church membership," taught by Dr. E. F. Campbell.

Each study period began promptly at 7:30. The whole evening provided for a 10-minute devotional, two 30-minute study periods, and a fun period between the two study periods which lasted for 10 minutes.

Mercer students who are workers in the Tattall Square B. Y. P. U.'s are: J. D. Ramsey and Clyde Elmore, interclass leaders; John G. Harrison, Jr. and E. F. Lohoy, presidents of the Fugate and Faithful Seniors unions respectively.

COMMERCE MEN START FEATURE

The school of commerce will observe "Vocational Night" the second Monday of each month. The first of the series of round table talks was held last Monday night in the commerce study room. E. M. Turlington, alumnus of Mercer and junior accountant, Dean C. B. Wray, and professor P. B. Anderson, of the commerce school, gave short talks on "Possibilities of the Accounting Field," according to A. A. Almond, of the Delta Sigma Pi, local commerce fraternity.

"Vocational Night, which will be sponsored by the Delta Sigma Pi fraternity, is for the purpose of promoting closer relationship of the boys of the school of commerce with outside possibilities and future of the work which they are taking," said Mr. Almond.

The second edition of Commerce, a news and "pep" bulletin issued monthly by the school of commerce was circulated at the meeting last Monday night.

BARRETT TO WED

Lomas L. Barrett, a Mercer graduate and at present a member of the faculty, will be married early in June, it was announced recently.

Mothers To Organize Club Here On May 10

The Mothers' club of Mercer university will meet Friday, May 10, during the chapel period, to form a permanent organization, according to tentative plans drawn up by a committee composed of Dr. Spright Dowell, Mrs. A. P. Montague and Mrs. Ben C. Holtzclaw. All the mother of Mercer boys will be invited.

A temporary Mothers' club was organized at the Mothers' Day program which was held in the Mercer chapel Thursday, March 21. It consists of Mrs. Ben Thompson, Madison, chairman; Mrs. Ben C. Holtzclaw, Macon, vice-chairman; Mrs. A. P. Montague, Macon, secretary; Mrs. Columbus Roberts, Columbus; Mrs. Ben Alford, Hartwell.

"It is Dr. Dowell's idea to create a home spirit on the Mercer campus," said Mrs. Montague. "The Mothers' club will bring the mothers of Mercer boys in closer touch with Mercer. It will arouse the interest of mothers in Mercer," she further stated.
