

Singers Play In Gray
Tonight After Lay-Up

The Mercer Glee club will make a week-end trip to Gray today. The club resumed practice last Tuesday evening, after a brief lay-up, according to Charlie Wallace, publicity manager of the club.

The club plans to take two or three more week-end jaunts this month, including a ten-day trip to Rome, Cedar town and other north Georgia towns, about the middle of April.

The last tour in northeast Georgia was successful, said Mr. Wallace.

RIALTO TO HAVE MIDNIGHT SHOW

A midnight show will be held at the Rialto theatre at 12:01 o'clock Sunday night (Monday morning) as a novel affair in connection with Clara Bow's first talking picture, "The Wild Party," a romantic comedy, according to an announcement by Manager Monty Salmon, of the Public theatres.

For this special occasion, Mr. Salmon said, a splendid program has been arranged. Light refreshments will be provided free, favors will be distributed in addition to other added attractions which will provide lots of fun, the manager explained.

"You have seen this wonderful girl Clara Bow make love," Mr. Salmon said in describing "The Wild Party," and he added, "Imagine listening to her as well. Come and join in the fun Clara Bow. Tickets are now on sale at the Rialto's midnight party with at the box office for 75 cents."

The story of "The Wild Party" from one written by Warner Fabian calls for youth's maddest flaunting of the conventions, and the action reaches many a crescendo pitch as unbridled flings in night clubs and Clara and her mates have their wild at week-end parties.

There is an undercurrent of true romance throughout the play which bubbles to the surface, triumphantly in the last few scenes.

Fredric March furnishes the heroic male appeal in the play, carrying off the role of a college professor with a delightful intelligence. He is dark-haired and handsome, and his directors did well to choose him as the lover.

A dazzling group of "baby stars" supports the inimitable Clara in true "hey-hey" style, furnishing an "It" complement that rounds out the film in the full curves of wholesome femininity.

AT THE RITZ

All but one of the players in the featured cast of "The Cohens and Kellys in Atlantic City," Universal sound farce now playing at the Ritz on the stage. Nora Lane, the exception, has had lengthy experience in the theatre, has played in numerous amateur productions, however, and has an excellent Movietone voice. In the cast are George Sidney, Vera Gordon, Mack Swain, Kate Price, Cornelius Keefe, Virginia Sale and Tom Kennedy.

RIALTO

"Will the gentleman who just coughed, kindly step to the box office . . . for a package of Old Golds?"

"Of course, I have never said just those words from the stage—but in all kindness I have often wanted to offer this friendly help to some poor fellow whose cough was interrupting the show and spoiling the enjoyment of those around him.

"A year or so ago, the makers of OLD GOLD ran some ads on the disturbing effect of coughing in theatres. As an actor, I was grateful for those ads. I am more grateful now that OLD GOLD has invited stage folk to help them bring 'first aid' information to our unhappy friends the 'theatre-coughers.'

"My own advice is that prevention is the best aid. The kind of prevention that smoking OLD GOLDS gives. Harsh tobacco irritates the throat, and that causes coughing. Changing to OLD GOLDS soothes the throat and removes the cause of the 'cough tickle.'"

(SIGNED) Gruber Marx
