of much strength and great worship. Sir Powell presseth his chin for to quiet his teeth and speaketh in a weak voice, "wit ye well yon knight haveth a grizzley look. I take none force of none honor an I had a hundred times lever to repose on the sidelines."
Now spake Sir Phew:
"I wot well what thou saith fair knight, but an ye will help me a little, we shall see yon fellowship go as fast back as they come forward."

"And there withall the joust beginneth with much noise and great fighting. In vain valient knights essayed to make a touchdown, many times they gat the ball almost to the goal line but straightway the Clio knights would not suffer it.
And so in the same wise time passeth until the timekeeper bloweth unto the half. And wherewith-al Coach Davis, when he saw his team to fare thus, he was sorely vexed, and spake right speedily: "Methinks the brave Clio knights will win the joust unless you repent ye the manner in which ye fight. Sir Pugh, let Sir Forsyth essay to carry the ball." Now Sir Forsyth wot him well that this was not easy, for already he might have essayed it, but when he sair visages, his heart would not suffer him thereto, but left them there.

But Sir Forsyth haveth much pep and he abideth his time and halp with great might. Ere long Uni Springs kicketh, and Clio suffereth the ball to pass behind their goal line. Anon Sir Forsyth with great force smote down three Clio knight, and cometh into the midst will be used by girls.

In addition there will be a roof-garden where there will be dancing six nights during the week and in which the student and faculty members may seek recreation.
There will be a dirigible moor-

DRAW A CIRCLE AROUND THE CENTER OF THIS FINE TOBACCO PLANT

These are the Center Leaves—the Mildest Leaves—the heart of Lucky Strike

As you can see from this picture—Luckies' fine, smooth quality doesn't just happen—for we use only the center leaves! Not the top leaves because those are under-developed—not ripe.
Not the bottom leaves because those are inferior in quality—they grow close to the ground and are dirt-covered, coarse, sandy. We select only the center leaves—for which farmers are paid higher prices—for the center leaves are the mildest leaves—they taste better—then—"It's toasted"—for throat protection. And every Lucky is fully packed with these choice tobaccos—made round and firm—free from loose ends —that's why Luckies do not dry out.

Luckies are all-ways kind to your throat.
