

PROFS TO STRUT ACADEMIC GARS

(Continued From Page One)

University of Chicago's maroon.

Mr. Kenneth Cameron will wear lemon to represent library science, lined with the maize and azure blue chevron of the University of Michigan.

Professor Gall Luke Carver—gold yellow for science with maize and azure blue chevron for the University of Michigan.

Major Ferguson, Mercer's only faculty member with an Oxford degree—will wear that traditional costume.

Dr. Wm. E. Fort—blue to represent philosophy (or copper for economics) with the dark blue and white of Duke University.

Dr. John D. Freeman—scarlet for divinity, with the colors of McMaster College, Ontario, Canada.

Dr. Fred L. Jones—white for arts and letters, with the cornelian and two white chevrons of Cornell University.

Miss Annie Mays—lemon yellow for library science, with the blue and gold of Emory University.

Dr. Burt Parker Richardson—the colorful academic costume of the University of Leipzig.

Professor Joseph Robinson—white for arts and letters, with the crimson of Harvard.

Dr. Gordon Singleton—light blue for pedagogy, with the light blue and one white chevron of Columbia.

Professor Welborn Talmage Smalley—the white for arts and letters, with the light blue and one white chevron of Columbia.

Dr. Dale Fisher Stanbury—purple for law, with the blue of Yale University.

Dr. Wilbur Stout—white for arts and letters, with the light blue and two white chevrons of the University of North Carolina.

Dr. Thomas Wade—gold yellow for science, with the navy blue and orange chevron of the University of Virginia.

Dr. Herbert Wright—blue for psychology, with the dark blue and white of Duke University.

DRAMATIC PLAYERS DRAW A PLAUSE

(Continued From Page One)

Between the acts specialties were provided by Charlie Thompson, president of the Glee Club, and piano soloist with that organization.

J. D. A.

PASS IN REVIEW

(Continued From Page One)

at Mercer. We have to purchase athletic tickets, so why not tickets to the dramatic presentations? The dramatic club is as good an advertisement for Mercer as any other organization on the campus, and its up to the students to support it.

—MC—

Thus we bring to a close our last column for the Mercer Cluster.

Stout, a member of the Mercer faculty, who re-organized the dramatic club after several seasons of inaction; and who built a stage suitable for dramatic presentations in the university chapel building. Tom Hardman, Ocmulgee, is president of the dramatic group, and Wylly Johnston is business manager.

ENGAGEMENTS

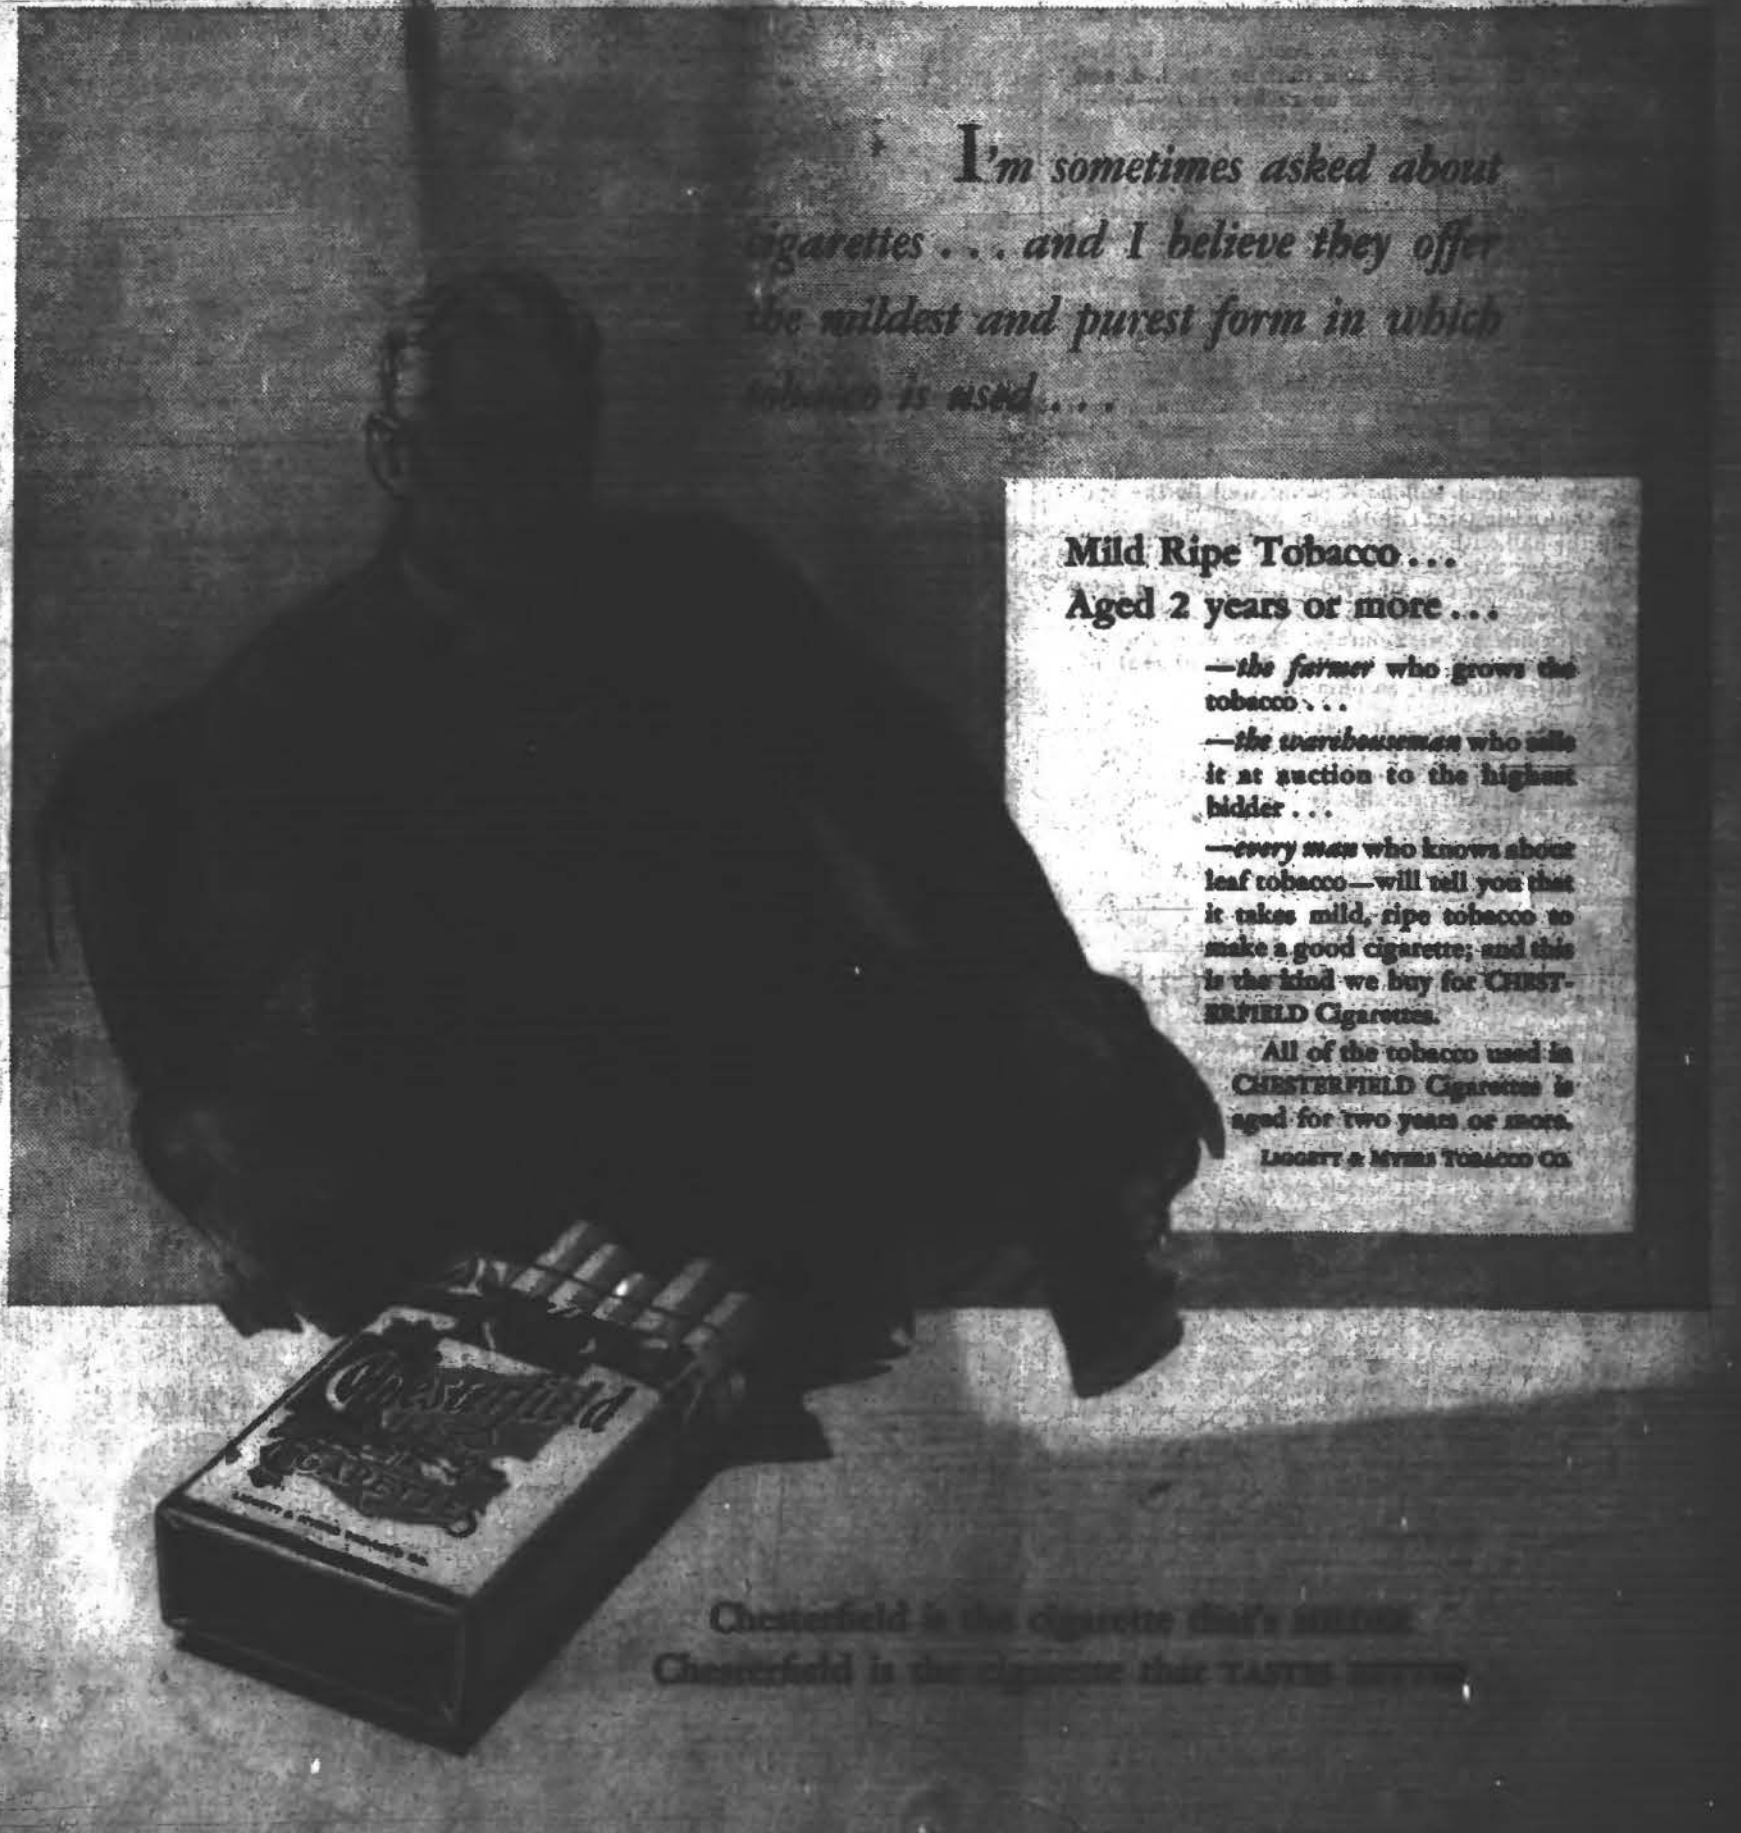

(Continued From Page One)

University of South Carolina, William and Mary State and the University of Carolina. He has received a 15 weeks engagement at Charlotte at Charlotte.

During the spring he played a lot of engagements at the University of North Carolina, scheduled to play at the University of Alabama, and at the University of Virginia. According to the band is booked to play at View Park, Norfolk, Va., during summer season.

Plans are being made for decoration of the building the various fraternities in colors and quite a number of alumni and visitors are expected to attend the Commencement exercises.

After spending 18 years of search work, Prof. G. C. ... the University of Chicago school, has published a ... uma treatise on ...

I'm sometimes asked about cigarettes . . . and I believe they offer the mildest and purest form in which tobacco is used . . .

Mild Ripe Tobacco . . .
Aged 2 years or more . . .

- the farmer who grows the tobacco . . .
 - the warehouseman who sells it at auction to the highest bidder . . .
 - every man who knows about leaf tobacco—will tell you that it takes mild, ripe tobacco to make a good cigarette; and this is the kind we buy for CHESTERFIELD Cigarettes.
- All of the tobacco used in CHESTERFIELD Cigarettes is aged for two years or more.
- LOSGY & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

Chesterfield is the cigarette that's always there.
Chesterfield is the cigarette that TASTES BEST.