

DUST STORM

By Woogy

Many human beings thrive on tales of the risqué, rumors of the near-immoral (some, even the grossly immoral), spicy gossip, wild and wooly expressions of some fool's imagination. Mercer students are no exceptions. The hue and cry has been why not a "dirt column?" "Why can't we have filth if we want it?" "Feed us muck and we'll read the CEUSTER." "Who wants to be serious? We'll never get out of this life alive anyhow." A lousy philosophy, but let's weaken.

Without a dance series or a glee club trip, dirt resources are few. Anyone can see the CHARLIE-MARIE twister gushing over the campus at all hours. That's not news but it fills up space in the likes of this. CRANDALL is giving his all to woo the just-off-Vineville lass. Ah, sweet sacrifice!! Balmy, balmy!! ADAMS has slacked in her frat ensignia harvesting. End of the first round. Between rounds she gets the BELL. Maybe it's a knockout... GIDDENS is in... HOLDER'S out... So is JACKSON now that AL is gone... but here's new fish to fry... if you get what I mean... four PHI DELTS played hooky from Morpheus Friday night... the SNELGROVE household suffered... the aggressors could take it... that is all except THOMPSON... he did not choose to run... or even walk... sleep meant more than anything... NESBITT is again in the fold... breweries flourish... ASHMORE has abandoned the glasses... watch out Tavern... rumors have it that HOWELL head of the BEAR SKIN no longer is... some sentence structure... the theolog pressure was too heavy... the censors missed a little spice... Raw! Raw!... over the town... WHEATIE still clings to the Red and Black Pi KA... ah, you didn't think it'd run this long, goody... she still has a spot in her heart for Mercer during the week... he comes down every weekend... the vote for the most loyal Mercer supporter in Marcon goes to the POPPER babe... trials may come and tribulations may go but Stanislaus support will live forever... ex-stude ETHERIDGE still goes out... that is out to the circle... FULGHUM likes her company... some say it's mutual... OVERBY is left in the lurch... he can't have his cake and not eat it... besides there's little MINNIE... then too the babe from BRENAU... incidentally some are still feeling the effects of the WATSON and COMPANY invasion... knashing of teeth... damnation this ravaging will drive me nuts... maybe two nuts... so long until next time... up with everything!!!! do: with the Phi Beta Kappas!!!

Wichita Offers Police Courses

Wichita, Kan. — (ACP) — Already a pioneer in police courses the University of Wichita has announced a second class in "The Science of Police Work." The course is offered by the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

The Wichita courses are planned to give thorough knowledge, both general and technical, of all phases of police practice.

Similar courses are being taught at the Universities of Minnesota, Southern California, Ohio State and Michigan State.

Down with the tall, dark handsome male, say University of Kentucky girls. They'd rather be amused by "the comic strip."

"Quotable Quotes"

"This is to inform you that the League of Yellow Journalists has elected you Honorary President stop." So ran a telegram sent last week to William Randolph Hearst by a group of Harvard scribes organized to exploit patriotism and instigate foreign wars.

"No nation can face the future with confidence when 5,000,000 of its younger citizens are forced to loaf, to loiter or to roam." Dean J. B. Edmondson of the University of Michigan points to a problem which he calls more serious than unemployment.

To set a record, 7,883 Harvard graduates contributed last year to the Harvard Fund.

COLLEGIATE REVIEW

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

Brown University has eliminated mid-year examinations and semester grades in full-year courses.

Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity will receive the bulk of the estate of James Anderson Hawes, deceased New York lawyer.

The number of college men applying for free Navy air training has decreased sharply since last year.

The University of Detroit plans to dedicate a campus tree to the memory of Joyce Kilmer, wartime poet.

Students Frown On War Entrance

Kingville, Texas — (ACP) — Ten students were picked at random on the Texas College of Arts and Industries campus here and asked if they'd willingly take part in another war.

Eight answered no, either definitely or with slight qualification. Two said they would, "if I was sure it was a war to end war."

More than 100 rare specimens from South and Central America have been added to Cornell University's famed orchid collection.

Jazz for the public schools is the recommendation of Dr. Harold G. Campbell, New York City's superintendent of schools.

TO AND FRO

By Aileen Bacon

"Blue Key Gets Seven Men." — Mercerian. Somebody on the staff is evidently an ardent admirer of those gallant heroes of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police.

Well, there's one thing we can look forward to. After next week there will be no more Pilgrimage Day stories.

See by the papers that Dr. Stout is act-head of the summer school journalism department. What might that be?

Spring has sprung and the sap comes out. By the way Basil Hall has moved his chair under the shade in front of the law building.

Chinese Forces Boast New Chief

Nanking, China — (ACP) — The military air bureau of China has a new chief, a young woman once known to her Wellesley classmates as Soong Mei-ling, now the wife of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, Premier and virtual dictator of China.

Mme. Chiang Kai-shek is directly responsible for all air force activity, from the purchase of planes to the preparation of propaganda.

You can tell by the twinkle in her eye
