

BLUE KEY MEMBERS, GUESTS FETED AT BANQUET MONDAY

Dr. Henry Rogers Is Main Speaker On Program At Final Meeting

Student and faculty members of Blue Key and their guests attended the annual spring banquet of the organization held at the Baconfield Woman's club Monday night.

Climaxing the activities of the year, the dinner was attended by 44 members and guests. Hunter Hurst, president for next year, acted as toastmaster for the short program after the affair.

Dr. Henry H. Rogers and Dr. Gordon G. Singleton, of the university faculty, were the speakers of the evening. Bill Cutts, Blue Key member, accompanied by Maines Rawls, rendered a musical selection during the program.

Faculty members who were present included: Dr. and Mrs. Gordon G. Singleton, Dr. and Mrs. John D. Freeman, Dr. and Mrs. John B. Clark, Dr. and Mrs. Henry H. Rogers, Prof. Brainerd Currel, Dr. Spright Dowell, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Overton, and Maj. and Mrs. J. D. Blair.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

(Continued from page one)
tain him as director of the Mercer Players.

"Since other organizations on campus and numerous students are in full agreement with us on this matter, we are enclosing herewith their various endorsements to the petition of Alpha Psi Omega."

NINE COMPLETE CREDIT FOR ALPHA PSI OMEGA

Nine completed credit for eligibility in Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity, in the production of one-act plays last week. Pledging ceremonies were held last night in the university chapel.

The pledges include Boyce Outen, Lansing Reddick, Tom Horton, Lennie Davis, Josie Brown, Bayne Barfield, Jordan Masee, Ledford Carter and Lewis H. Wright, honorary for his work in the Frustrations of Luther Rice.

The final initiation will be next Thursday night, it was announced by Bill Cutts, president.

Following the pledging ceremony the group was entertained with a weiner roast at the home of Peggy Chapman.

COMMENCEMENT

(Continued from page 1)
Fred R. Martin, Dr. Louis D. Newton, pastor of the Druid Hills church in Atlanta, will give the dedication address for the library. Mr. M. L. Britton, president of Georgia Tech, will dedicate the gymnasium. Senator Walter F. George, Mercer trustee, will give the response for the university.

Following this a reception will be held for the graduating class in the home of Dr. Spright Dowell. Alumni and trustees will also be present at the reception.

The commencement program will be concluded with the graduation exercises Monday night. The exercises will be held in the university chapel, beginning at 8 o'clock. The main address will be given by Senator Walter F. George. Following this, diplomas will be awarded.

Growth rings on baby teeth have been discovered by Dr. Isaac Schour, of the college of dentistry at the University of Illinois. These rings, he states, show a relationship to the child's age.

BEAR SKIN AWARDS

Awards offered by the Bear Skin, one for the best short story turned in to the editors this quarter, and the other for the most work done on the publication, will be announced in the student chapel exercises next Wednesday, Willis Conger, editor, has stated. Judges for the contests will include Dr. Wilbur Stout, Dr. Henry H. Rogers, Dr. E. E. Overton, and the editor. The prizes will be five dollars each.

Theta Sigma Beta Gives Bridge Party

The alumnae of Theta Sigma Beta sorority entertained with a benefit bridge party at the Macon Gas company club rooms yesterday afternoon. Prizes were award-

B.S.U. Council Meets; New Officers Elected

The newly elected B.S.U. Council held its first meeting Tuesday morning in Roberts Chapel.

The installation of officers for next year was held in the Tatnall Square Baptist church on May 12. Raymond Rigdon, new president, and Dr. Wm. Keel, faculty adviser, were the speakers.

There will be a party Monday night at 7:30 for the new and old councils at the home of Hilda Beggs.

ed the winner at each table, and refreshments were served.

Present members of the sorority include: Dona Nicholas, president; Leonora Cason, 1st vice president; Hattie Mary Cook, 2nd vice president; Beverly Newton, secretary; Josie Brown, treasurer; Martha Hart, Frieda Newsom, Billy Denson, Clare Rowland, Mary Jo Brown, Mary Emma Benton, Lillian Sappington, Edna Zuber, Virginia Little, Dot Cox, Nancy Wingham, and Marie Horton.

Flournoy Heads Literary Society

Jordan, Nesbitt, Edwards Willis, Hawthorne Elected At Final Meeting

Thomas Flournoy, Jr., Fort Valley, was elected president of the Ciceronian Literary society at the last meeting of the year. Flournoy is a member of the glee club, International Relations club, and the varsity tennis team. He is also a member of the Phi Delta Theta social fraternity.

Irma Willis, Macon, was elected vice president; James Jordan, Macon, secretary; Katherine Hawthorne, Macon, critic; Jack Nesbitt, Cordele, sergeant-at-arms. Harold Edwards, Atlanta, was re-elected chaplain.

To learn about habits of the black widow spider, John Pierson, zoology student at Oregon State college, watches the inkcolored captives for an hour or so daily.

L.R.C. Elects Pennell President Next Year

Mary Pennell, Shreveport, La., has been elected president of the International Relations club for next year. Deveron Robinson, Rome, will serve as first vice president; Hugh M. Neisler, Reynolds, second vice president; Katherine Calhoun, Hamilton, treasurer; Lucile Balcom, Macon, secretary; and L. W. Youmans, Soperton, sergeant-at-arms.

Miss Pennell replaces Daniel Evans, who was president of the group this year. She is a junior in the arts college, a member of the Cardinal Key honor sorority, the Alpha Psi Omega dramatic fraternity, the co-ed "M" club, and the Kappa Alpha social sorority. The meeting Tuesday was the last meeting of the club this year.

The recent fire at Brown University destroyed the notes William L. Kuble, was going to use in writing his senior thesis. He had spent a year in gathering the material.

INTERVIEWS

(Continued from page 1)
TRAMMEL SHI: If there were sufficient funds for the installation of a good broadcasting system, it would be a good thing for Mercer. We have sufficient talent for interesting and entertaining programs.

WARWICK NORRIS: I think we should have it. It would make the programs much more interesting and they could be more varied. The advertisement would be good for Mercer.

RECOGNIZING

ALPHA PSI OMEGA Dramatic Fraternity

Founded—August 12, 1925
Colors—Amber and Moonlight Blue

HAYES BARBER SHOP

Cherry St. — Haircuts 25c

it must be Chesterfield

...that delicious aroma couldn't be anything else

Aroma is half the pleasure of smoking

Chesterfield's aroma is DIFFERENT
...more pleasing...you like it better.

That's because of the way we blend and balance Chesterfield's mild ripe home-grown tobaccos and aromatic Turkish tobaccos...and because the Chesterfield paper is PURE and burns without taste or odor.

Chesterfields will give you MORE PLEASURE

They Satisfy