

THE MERCER CLUSTER

Volume 18.—Z-120

MERCER UNIVERSITY, MACON, GEORGIA, MAY 25, 1938

No. 31

COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM IS COMPLETED; JOHNSON, COX WILL SPEAK AT EXERCISES

MERCER HOST TO MACON SENIORS

FIRST ADDRESS TO BE JUNE 5; 79 GRADUATE

LANIER, MILLER STUDENTS ARE GUESTS TONITE

Mt. de Sales Seniors Visit Mercer In Annual Open House and Program

Macon high school seniors are being entertained tonight in the sixth annual party in their honor.

Guests invited to the open-house and program include 180 Lanier High School seniors, 170 Miller High School seniors, five Mt. de Sales seniors, and the faculties of the three schools.

Hosts tonight are the Mercer student body and faculty, and members of the Mercer Auxiliary. Macon students at Mercer form an unofficial welcoming committee.

The program began at 8:30 o'clock in the Porter Gymnasium with an opening period of vocal and musical selections. This will be followed by a brief intermission during which George Brown, president of the student body, will welcome the visitors.

Later there will be more musical numbers, and at the conclusion of the program, refreshments will be served in the Student Center building.

Students participating on the program were Harold Beatty, Macon, soloist; Martha Harrison, Mary Pennell and Helen Glenn, who composed a co-ed trio; the glee club octet, and orchestra.

The octet is made up of Abe Conger, Billy Jenkins, Isaac Levine, Ben Fitzpatrick, Charles Lowery, Jack Phillips, James Rawls, and T. R. Smith.

SENIORS, ALUMNI ATTEND PROGRAM

Judge Bell Asks Graduating Class For Cooperation With Alumni

Judge R. C. Bell, president of the Alumni Association, stressed the importance of co-operation and group effort in daily life in the main address of the Senior Day program last Friday.

"The days of personal success are a thing of the past," the judge told a large chapel audience. "From now on teamwork will be an essential part of our existence." Judge Bell's talk was a part of the formal induction of the seniors into the Alumni Association.

Other alumni introduced by Prof. Josiah Crudup were W. M. Marshall, Tennesse; Judge John B. Guerry, of Montezuma, who welcomed the 1938 seniors into the alumni group; J. Fred Edon, James; and T. Ayer Hatcher, Macon. These alumni together with Claude Christopher, of Columbus, who was unable to attend the program, form the liaison committee of the association.

On the student part of the exercises, Helen Glenn recalled the history of the class since its members first entered the university.

Commencement Speakers

DR. C. O. JOHNSON

E. E. COX

CARDINAL KEY ELECTS BOOTH

New Officers Are Installed At Banquet Of Sorority Last Night

Christine Booth, Woodstock, was formally installed as president of the Cardinal Key honor sorority during a banquet of the organization last night.

New members elected this month were initiated at the meeting in the Baconfield clubhouse. Other officers installed for next year are Anne Nolan, vice president; Hattie Mary Cook, secretary; Dorothy Sawyer, treasurer; and Marie Horton, historian.

Miss Booth is a member of the Young Women's Auxiliary, the Baptist Student Union Council, Co-ed Athletic association and president of the Sigma Phi sorority. She is a junior at Mercer.

Ethridge Given Va. Fellowship

Aldon Ethridge, laboratory assistant in the Mercer chemistry department, recently was notified of his appointment to a two-year fellowship at the University of Richmond, Virginia, beginning next fall.

Ethridge graduated from Mercer (Continued on Page 2)

KEYS AWARDED GRAHL, RAWLS

Lynn Presents Cauldron Keys For Valuable Service On Annual Staff

Dan Grahl, Organizations' Editor, and James Rawls, Student Information Editor, will be given the two keys to be awarded to the CAULDRON staff members rendering the most valuable service in preparing the book, W. R. Lynn, editor, has announced.

Wilhelmina Carr, Faculty Editor, and Margaret Pulliam, Sophomore Editor, have received honorable mention for their splendid work as staff members.

Grahl is responsible for the collection and preparation of the facts included in the organizations division, while Rawls is responsible for collection and preparation of the student information included in the four class sections.

Miss Carr interviewed all faculty members and composed the brief write-ups accompanying faculty pictures. Miss Pulliam is responsible for collection of the facts for the story of the ten-year administration building and endowment program and the facts included in the views division.

Originally, it was planned to award a key to only one staff member. Competition, however, between the two members to be given keys was so keen that the editor decided to award two.

Macon Students Are Dominant In Honor Program

Eleven Out Of Twenty Under- graduates Recognized Are Lanier, Miller Graduates

Macon students were dominant on the Honors Day program held at Mercer on May 13. Eleven out of twenty undergraduates honored on the occasion were products of Macon high schools.

Heading the list was Wylie Davis, who received the award of the most outstanding freshman Katherine Hawthorn and Bert Struby, seniors at the university, were selected for membership in Sigma Mu, local scholarship fraternity. To be eligible for membership in Sigma Mu, a student must make and maintain a high scholastic average and have a high standard of character.

Among the eight varsity debaters receiving certificates during the exercises were three Maconites. These were Leon Garfield, John Birch, and Billy Geeslin. Wylie Davis, Harry Goldgar, and Dan Porter, representing three fourths of the freshman debating squad, were recognized.

Two out of three recipients of Cluster keys were graduates of Lanier. These were Howard Laney and Billy Geeslin, who were members of the reportorial staff of the student newspaper during the last two years.

Numerous campus offices have been occupied by local students this year. Helen Glenn, a graduate of Miller, has served as president of the Cardinal Key sorority, honor society for women students, president of the Co-ed Athletic Association, and president of the co-ed student body.

Between the two members to be given keys was so keen that the editor decided to award two.

By way of explanation, Lynn states that Cloud Morgan is editor of the running story accompanying (Continued on page 4)

HURST PASSES MARINE TESTS

Senior Gets O.K. of Pensacola Board For Appointment As Second Lieutenant

Edward Hunter Hurst, Perry, Mercer senior, has successfully passed the final physical examination for appointment as Second Lieutenant in the regular service of the United States Marine Corps, it was announced here this week.

Hurst had previously been designated an honor graduate of the Platoon Leaders Class, Volunteer Marine Corps Reserve, following two six weeks periods of training at Quantico, Va. After this designation, he was declared eligible to apply for a regular commission by the selection board at headquarters in Washington.

Mrs. Armstrong To Lecture At Church School

MRS. F. W. ARMSTRONG

Thirty prominent religious workers including Mrs. F. W. Armstrong, president of the Southern Baptist Woman's Missionary Union, will teach at the ninth annual Mercer Church efficiency school, June 6-10.

Other members of the school faculty include Dr. Kyle M. Yates, Southern Baptist Seminary, Louisville; Dr. H. E. Dana, Southwestern Seminary, Texas; Dr. Aquilla Chamblee, president of the Georgia Baptist convention; and Dr. James W. Merritt, secretary of the Georgia Baptist Convention.

Courses to be featured at the school are those on the Old and New Testaments, rural church work, the Woman's Missionary Union, the Church and Its Work, the Pastor and His Work.

Sessions of the school will be open to ministers and church workers from throughout the state and several hundred representatives are expected to attend.

The church school will be held the week following Mercer commencement exercises, beginning on Tuesday morning and continuing through Friday night. Each evening through Thursday evangelism services will be held in the Macon auditorium with Dr. C. O. Johnson in charge.

DR. RICHARDSON WILL ATTEND CLASS REUNION

Dr. Burt P. Richardson, head of the chemistry department, will deliver the principal address next Monday night at alumni exercises of the high school from which he graduated 50 years ago in Windsor, Missouri.

In Dr. Richardson's graduating class on April 20, 1888, there were six girls, Dr. Richardson being the first boy and only boy in his class to graduate. Four of the women have died; of the two remaining, one lives in Kansas City, Missouri. (Continued on page 2)

Former President of Northern Baptists, Congressman To Come Here

Dr. C. Oscar Johnson, will deliver the Commencement sermon and Congressman E. E. Cox will make the alumni address at the Centennial Commencement exercises June 5-6.

Seventy-nine students will receive degrees at the graduating exercises scheduled for 8:00 o'clock Monday evening in the Macon municipal auditorium. At that time Dr. Johnson, past president of Northern Baptist Convention, will give the Baccalaureate address.

The opening event of the program will be the Commencement sermon delivered by Dr. Johnson at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the city auditorium. A meeting of the alumni will be held in the university chapel at 11:30 o'clock Monday morning at which time Judge R. C. Bell, president of the Mercer Alumni Association and a member of the Georgia Supreme court, will speak. Judge Bell's speech will be followed by Mr. Cox's address.

At 12:30 p. m. there will be a meeting of the board of trustees in the president's office. Immediately following the trustee meeting the alumni will be feted with a luncheon in the Sherwood Hall dining room. Reunions have been planned for classes ending in numerals eight and three after the luncheon.

Dr. Dowell will hold a reception in honor of the graduating students at his home at 5 o'clock, Monday afternoon. The graduating exercises in the auditorium will climax the commencement activities.

Following is the list of seniors who will receive degrees:

BACHELOR OF ARTS

James Balkcom, Lucile Balkcom, William Arthur Barrow, Edyth Elizabeth Bateman, Elizabeth Catherine Bowlby, Josie Juannelle Brown, Walter Asa Brown, Katherine Calhoun, Hugh C. Carney, Philip Jarrell Chastain, Abraham Benjamin Conger, Jr., James Willis Conger.

Harry Cleveland Dismuke, Jr., Ewing Paul Edge, Charles Edwards, Frank Edwards, James Fitzpatrick, Jr., Thomas Fleming Flournoy, Jr., Helen Irene Glenn, George C. Gunn, Jr., Chester Lee Hall, Frances Katherine Hawthorne, James Charles Hearn, Edward Hunter Hurst, William Allen James, Elbert Ellis Jenkins, Freeman Johnson.

Willis Hamilton Kimzey, Jr., Lillian Louise Kirtland, Ivan L. Lester, Isaac Levine, Holcombe Marshal, Jr., John Milton Martin, Davis Lafayette Mincey, Olin N. Morgan, Jr., Urban Allen Moss, Henry Gustave Muecke, Jr., Samuel Lloyd Newberry, Elwyn Vincent Patrick, Phil Manson Patton, Mary A. Pennell, Harriet Pittman, Jack Freeman Pool, John Brewton Rabun, Lansing Truman Reddick, Ellis Walker Sammons, III, Albert Hubert Sanders, Jr. (Continued on Page 2)

EDITOR'S DAYBOOK

SUNDAY
Afternoon 3:00—Pan-Hellenic meeting, Sigma Pi fraternity house.

WEDNESDAY
Morning 9:00—Final examinations for all 8:30 classes.
Afternoon 2:00—Final examinations for all 12:10 classes

THURSDAY
Morning 9:00—Exams for all 9:30 classes
Afternoon 2:00—Exams for 2:10 classes

FRIDAY
Morning 9:00—Final examinations for all 11:10 classes
Afternoon 2:00—Examinations for any conflicting classes