"Brain Trust"—there just ain't no sich. As for skunks, we never did care for the company of that society; it reminds us so doggoned much of the filthiness of politics on our campus. Your point about dirty politics having been in existence since "the early days of our republic" is very true. But they used to ride in buggies until Ford hit upon a better scheme. It is the whole truth to say that our system as it stands "closely corresponds" to the machinery used in national, state, and city elections. However, only a small handful of Mercer students will enter the political arena and the rest of us are aware of the deplorable condition of politics in general—especially here in the Empire State. We just hate to think of the spring elections as "batting practice" for something as low-down as national, state and city elections.

Erskine Hawkins, "Twentieth Century Gabriel", has been chosen as the man who will do the toot-ing in the forthcoming production of "Young Man With A Horn", the play based on the life of Bix Beiderbeck which will star Burgess Meredith. Hawkins is currently in New York at the Savoy where he is broadcasting NBC thrice weekly. Tommy Dorsey and Glenn Miller have been picked for the trombone section of Whiteman's 1939 All-American Swing Band, the latter replaces Jackson Tea garden.

Is Sarah Jane Reese having a change of heart, and consequently a change of fraternity preference?
Well, Jani, just look out with James Booth! Are you slipping!!!

Dr. Knight is a bit curious about whose fraternity pin is Leanelle Lovett is wearing? He asked her if it was Lib Henry's. Well?

Someone asked Cloud Morgan the other day what type girl he preferred. Cloud said, "I don't like women!" Another one of those woman-haters, eh! Well, Clara!

Congratulations to Marjorie Hughes and Virginia Fincher for their grand performances in their first appearances in a Mercer play production.
