Future MD's Dine In Style

By Brannon Sells

Last night Theta Kappa Psi, medical frat at the University of Georgia medical school in Augusta, honored the future doctors at Mercer with a banquet fit for a king. Just as everyone thought that rush week was over there came a call from outside Greeks, and the pre-med rusbees were herded together, forced to eat a swell dinner at Fay's, and meet "the fellows" from over medical school way.

From Augusta came Dr. F. N. Harrison, Dr. Eugene Sims—an old Mercer grad—Dr. Ben Dickens, Dr. Joseph Jackson, Dr. Roder Turner and Dr. John Rabun, also of Mercer. Macon was represented by such well-known men as Dr. C. K. McLaughlin, Dr. A. M. Phillips, Dr. Raymond Spirez, Dr. Sam Patton, Dr. W. W. Baxley, and Dr. O. O. Watson.

Upon leaving, the Greeks had high hopes of pledging a large percentage of the twenty or so pre-meds who were present.

After hearing of the exciting life that the medical student leads, and the fees that a doctor collects, the embryonic doctors went back to their studies determined to make better grades, therefore hastening their acceptance into medical school, and aiding them to keep out of the draft.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Mr. Editor:

I wish to remind you, and through your good office the student body generally, of the heartfelt thanks which Janitor George asked me to give to all that contributed to his wife's funeral. We were able to raise $31.50 for this cause. This was a substantial help to him during this time of need. Mercer students have an excellent attitude toward such worthy causes, which is heartening during such dark hours in other areas.

Thanks a million,
EDWIN E. DUNCAN.

Navy Boys Finish Course at Mercer

The twenty Naval Cadets who have been receiving CPT training at Mercer for the past six weeks left last week-end to take up advanced training in other schools.

The cadets will have a brief rest period, after which they will receive orders to report to their next training base. The majority of them had left by Sunday afternoon for their homes.

It is expected that a new and larger class will arrive soon. Nat Kaderly is instructor for the program.

direct the banquet, which is to feature the Baptist Student magazine.

Frats To Give WMAZ Skits

"The Mercer Fraternity and sorority programs will begin Tuesday afternoon, January 12, 1943, over radio station WMAZ. They will be given every Tuesday until the series is completed," announced Hugh Cheek, President of Pan-Hellenic Council.

A cup will be presented to the fraternity or sorority that presents the best program. The programs will be judged on originality, entertainment values, and presentation.

Kappa Sigma fraternity will present the first program. The other programs will be presented as follows: Phi Delta Theta, Phi Mu, Kappa Alpha, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Alpha Lambda Tau, Alpha Delta Pi, and Alpha Tau Omega.

The judges will be announced later.

The average co-ed wears a size 14 dress.

Wives Unite For Service

The Montague Club, an organization of student preachers' wives, has been reorganized on the Mercer campus after three years of inactivity, it was revealed last week.

The Club, named after Mother Montague, has for its aim learning more about WMU work and how to use it in local fields of service. It meets each Friday night at 7:30 in Roberts Chapel, and tonight the members will hear a talk on The WMU and Her Young People.

Officers of the group are Mrs. Charles Rector, president; Mrs. J. C. Embry, vice president; Mrs. Donald Harris, secretary; Mrs. J. G. Whitley, treasurer; Mrs. James McRae, pianist; Mrs. Charles Massey, publicity chairman; and Mrs. Lloyd Amason, scrap book chairman.

About twelve wives of Mercer students are members of the club. Any others will be welcomed.

Silhouette Prints Homecoming Issue

A Homecoming issue of The Silhouette will be in student P. O. boxes, Thursday, November 12, Business Manager Sam Crossley announced today.

The 12-page issue will feature snapshots of the campus by Thomas Parker, among other things.

A Thanksgiving and a Christmas issue will also appear before holidays begin. Publication dates for these are November 25 and December 17, respectively.

Deadlines have been set on November 13 for the Thanksgiving number and December 1 for the Christmas issue. All contributions both from staff members and from the general student body must be in the hands of the editor by these dates in order to be printed.
