PRESTO Reviews Records

"When the Lights Go On Again," by Peter Piper's orchestra. Orchestra chorus inferior on such a swell tune. Amateurish arrangement, with vocal by The Peppers who do all right but end is weak. "Praise the Lord" on reverse, with standard arrangement. Recorded by the Hit Record.

"I Found a Peach in Orange New Jersey," by Arthur Fields with orchestra. Copy of Singing Sam's style on the coke radio program. Rasping voice with a sorry tune. "There's a Star Spangled Banner Waving Somewhere" on reverse. Disgusting. Belongs in hill-billy category. Recorded by the Hit Record.

"Moonlight Becomes You" by Johnny Jones and his orchestra. Sentimentalists take note. Nice tune if you don't listen too long. Arrangement fair, with vocal. Far from "name band" style of excellence, but acceptable. On reverse, "Ticketyboo," which is

Napier Made Head Of Greek Council

Hendley Napier was elected president of the Pan-Hellenic Council at its last meeting.

The other officers are: Benny Griffith, secretary; and Frank Pinkston, treasurer. The vice-president will be an SAE, not yet selected.

useless. Another Hit Record.

"You'd Be So Nice To Come Home To" by Emil Davis and his Society orchestra. Orchestra fair. Vocal by girls trio sung in amateurish harmony. Need practice. On reverse, "The Steam is on the Beam" is a little improvement. Nice tune but orchestra and vocal don't do it justice. Recorded by Hit Record.

Blue Key Prexy Leaves Mercer

Harold Hollingsworth, law school junior and president of Blue Key honorary fraternity, withdrew from school yesterday to return home because of his father's illness.
