Studes Seen At Fay's Club, Warring Socialites Return

Wandering Reporter Hits The Night Spots

Seen at Fay's last Saturday night was a party of V-12 boys and dates. Among those present were Lou Pugliese, Beverly Lee, Pat Bledsoe, Fritz Lyne, Juanita Johnson, Sanford Mullen, Jeane Cowart, Joe Harrison, Hank Wilkie, Annette Smith, Floyd Wade, Mickey Horra, Doris Burkhalter, Ben Griffith, Clyde Chivers, Bob Willis, Robert McCall, and Robert's sister, Doris McCall, who spent last weekend at Mercer.

Among those Mercerians seen at the Idle Hour Club Saturday night were Joe Crudup, Scootie Williams, Waddell Barnes, Dean Skipper and John Dixon.

Several of the old Mercer students were at the club. Among these were Don Beaty, Preston Collins and Sydney Raley, with the Marines in Atlanta; Billy Baskin in the Naval Air Corps, and Billy McCowen, prize of the Army.

Pan-Hellenic is staging a dance at the Y.W.C.A. tomorrow night. With the aid of the Navy boys, we expect this to be a very successful affair. Pan-Hellenic plans to use the proceeds of this dance to help finance the Homecoming dances in November.

ADPi's Throw Formal Fete

The Alpha Delta Pi's entertained at the last rush party of the season, Sunday night. The party was formal and the sorority sisters were attired in blue or white evening gowns. A skit was presented in the chapter room, followed by a reception in the suite.

White diamond-shaped cakes topped with the Greek letters for Alpha Delta Pi in blue, and punch were served to the guests. Mary Louise Shipp, president of the sorority, gave a short talk. In conclusion everyone locked arms and sang "I Love the Pin." The suite was decorated with white gladiolas, roses and astors.

General Visits ATO Brothers

The General could not join the boys in that good old Southern gesture, the "morning coke," because of digestive illness he contracted in recent New Zealand duty, but he was glad to have the opportunity to chat with his Alpha Tau Omega brothers.

General John H. Hester, who visited the ATO suite in the Co-op after his address Wednesday, recalled very pleasantly his affiliation with the chapter during his period as Commanding Officer of Camp Wheeler. Especial mention was made of the rush party in which the General took the rushees on a tour of Camp Wheeler complete with a stop at the mess hall and a few pot shots on the rifle range.

With The Clubs . . .

By CATHERINE ELMORE

The Alambic club, which is a club for those students who are interested in science, held its first meeting of the year in the biology building last Thursday night. Lewis Smith, president, presided. Marvin Green gave a demonstration of chemical reaction. The group was also entertained by Lewis Smith, who gave a very good lecture on gyroscopes. The club is divided into two sections, Chemistry and Physics. The club will hold its next meeting in October. All students interested in science are cordially invited.

The Young Women's Auxiliary is one of the leading organizations on the campus. Its purpose is to promote Christian ideals among the girls in the dormitory. Also, to promote the ideals of young womanhood.

This year's officers are: Nancy Mosely, president; Jane Lou McCleod, vice president, and Lulu Stanford, secretary and treasurer. Due to the illness of the president, Nancy Mosely, the first meeting of the group was postponed. The next meeting date will be announced in chapel.

The Screen Test

Here are the cinema attractions which will appear during the following week at the Grand and East Macon. (Two local theaters.)

Heaven Can Wait. Don Ameche turns out to be a skirt chaser in this one and even the ingenious director Ernest Lubitch can't do much with him. Gene Tierney is still in need of a good, sturdy set of teeth braces, as far as we can see. It's funny in spots (the picture, we mean) and certainly odd.

The Desperadoes is a Western in which the lily is gilded somewhat by technicolor. At least the blood looks more crimson. Randolph Scott, Glenn Ford, Claire Trevor and Evelyn Keyes are in it, which may or may not mean anything to you. The only thing that would make up for the mediocre plot, dialogue, directing, and acting, would be for the management to pass out free Lana Turners with each Service Men's ticket.

Rose Franken's Claudia goes well on the screen, as Dorothy McGuire, who played the role on Broadway, is lured to Hollywood for plenty enough coin. Ina Claire is maternal as Claudia's mother, and Robert Young is well cast again and succeeds in making David into a very natural Bob Young. One of the few good movies on the move now.

Bombardier gives Pat O'Brien and Randolph Scott another chance to play at living soldiers, and you lucky people another chance to get at that new novel you were planning to stay home and read. —B. G.

General . . .

"American fighters have the will to win, and therefore can accomplish the impossible," summed up the General's comment of the superiority of our armed forces, "but they want the assurance that those at home are doing everything possible to hasten the end of the war. They most appreciate cheerful letters from home."

Have a Coca-Cola = Howdy, Neighbor

It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke"

from Arizona to Australia

At home or abroad, when the American soldier says "Have a 'Coke'" to a stranger, he's made a new buddy. From Minneapolis to Melbourne, Coca-Cola stands for the peace that refreshes — has become the mark of the good neighbor.
