BSU HAS PARTY

The Baptist Student Union entertained its members at a weiner roast and skating party Saturday, February 5, at Ragan's Recreation Park.

After the weiner roast the guests skated and bowled. About thirty members were present.

PHI DELTS TO HAVE HAYRIDE

The local chapter of Phi Delta Theta will go to Conally's Lodge on a hayride Saturday night, February 14. "Ug" Lee is in charge of the entertainment.

The alumni present will be Billy Dodd, James Culver and Gus Graham.

ATO's GIVE DINNER

Alpha Zeta chapter of Alpha Tau Omega gave a dinner at Fay's Saturday night, February 5, honoring Echols Mayo.

The guests were Bill Poe, Mary Marshall Folks, Echols Mayo, Pat Bledsoe, Charlie Aultman, Minnette Cavanaugh and Dick Hartley.

KA's ELECT OFFICERS

Kappa chapter of Kappa Alpha order elected officers January 26, for the coming year.

They are, president, Homer Crandall of Americus; vice president, Carl York of Macon, and secretary, George Skene of Macon.

SAM CROSSLEY ENTERTAINS

Sam Crossley honored Echols Mayo at a buffet supper Sunday night, February 6, at his home on Orange Street.

The supper consisted of chicken salad, crackers, sandwiches, assorted cookies, potato chips, pickles, olives and punch.

The guests were Pat Bledsoe, Echols Mayo, Jean Taylor, Bill McNab, Jeanne Lukens, Bill Wilson, Mary Marshall Folks, Bill Poe, Sam Crossley and Sanford Mullen.

KA ALUMNI HAS BANQUET

The alumni of Kappa Alpha held a banquet in honor of Dr.

William E. Kilpatrick at the Elk's Club, Wednesday, Feb. 9.

It was an informal dinner with no planned program. Forty alumni and active members were present. A number of Dr. Kilpatrick's contemporaries at Mercer and from other states were present.

ATO ENTERTAINS FOR ALUMNI

Alpha Zeta of Alpha Tau Omega entertained its Macon alumni at an informal smoker in the lounges of the Administration Building, Friday night at 8:30.

Dr. A. G. Harris of Macon was one of the outstanding alumni present. Plans for reviving the alumni association were discussed.

Guests were served chicken salad, stuffed celery, crackers, olives and coffee. Jeanne Lukens and Ann Slate served.

MINISTERS GROUP HAS BANQUET

The Ministerial Association entertained its members and their guests at a semi-formal banquet at Tattnell Square Church, on Thursday, February 10 at 7:30 o'clock. The banquet was honoring graduating ministers.

The program consisted of a trio from Bessie Tift College and a trio from Mercer. Practical jokes were played on the members who graduate. The speaker for this occasion was Rev. Pierce Harris, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Atlanta. Rev. Harris writes an editorial in the Atlanta Journal.

Fried chicken and trimmings were served. Eighty-five people were present. Faculty members there were Dr. and Mrs. Dowell, Dr. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Gordh, Dr. Anthony and Rev. Dick Horne.

Valentines . . .

we would turn day into darkness for them.

If Charis doesn't take care of L. H. Johnson, we'll be forced to send him one of those "Is Your Hair Prematurely Gray" ads. The poor guy has certainly had enough to worry him lately.

One girl on the campus we can't exclude is Velma Carter. Velma, we suggest a DuBarry Success Course (no, not corset). It works, they say.

A special Valentine for Chapman—a big leash so she can lead her KA's around easier. She doesn't need one for Shep any more.

Since we'd like to see Gordon Hubbard get some mail we've ordered Charles Atlas' book on dynamic tension for him.

We're lending Catheren Harwell one box of carbon paper so she can save time when she writes to her men after March. She'll have quite a job when they start leaving.

Mike Warr may run out of subjects for his column any day now, so we're going to send him a complete set of encyclopedias.

A certain red haired guy seems to be immune to females. For the benefit of his fans, we donate our refrigerator to Har-ison Lilly.

Bless his heart, Bill McNab needs Pat Bledsoe to take care of him.

To Floyd Wade we give (for cold winter nights) a big rearing fire and a shaggy blonde and to his colleague David Griffin scads of B. S. U. trots.

To Bill Wilson we give Jeanne Lukens and Jeanne Lukens vice-versa.

In closing we would like to dedicate a quotation from Shakespeare to Bill Longley—"What manner of men are these Who walk around on parentheses."

Cohen: How is bitzness?
Levi: Bitzness would be good only for one ting.
Cohen: And vat iz dat?
Levi: It iz rotten.

SERENADER

Frank Sinatra, who warbles those romantic ballads on CBS' "Your Hit Parade," is scoring heavily in radio, night clubs and personal appearances. Frank started his successful career on the Major Bowes Amateurs' program, singing "Night and Day."

PERSONALS

Phil Zlotnic, who was in the V-12 Unit last summer, has recently received his commission as Ensign. He is now stationed at Cornell University, where he is undergoing advanced training before being transferred to the fleet as a deck officer. Phil was the first member of the local V-12 Unit to receive a commission.

Francis Wright, who was also in the Mercer unit, has recently received his commission in the Supply Corps of the Navy.

Benny Griffith, former editor of the CLUSTER, is now at Midshipman School, Columbia University.

They Say . . .

If you want to know anything about anyone on the Mercer campus, THEY SAY just ask Red Williams. He gets around more than anybody. He might even know why Short is campused—and where Mary Frances got the beer mug that's sitting on her window sill.

They say "Bugs" had trouble with the Army last week. You wouldn't let a dog face take Jackie away from you, would you Roberson?

Someone ask Register where he and "Jannie" went last Saturday night. He wouldn't tell us. What happened to Dowell-Dubose anyway?

They say this is old, but it's new to me. When someone introduced Jane Lou to Barefoot she thought they said Barefoot Sandles and said, "How do you do. My name's Spectator Pump."

Gilbert Darnell is already worried about how he's gonna keep his basketball award away from the cute little blond. As Mr. Smith said, "Where's your willpower, Darnell?" Are you a man or—in love?

Speaking of awards, Betty Bates will deserve one IF she can be good enough to get off campus. She must really have character (or something) to get a month in the bounds.

Ask Dot Dean who it is that writes "FREE," like that, on her letters. They say it's interesting.

While we're asking questions—somebody ask Roundtree who he was waiting for in the bus station Sunday night?

They say Louis Smith is going to get a hum-dinger of a valentine. Come Monday we'll all want to see it Louis, so put it on the bulletin board please.

Who put the R. T. M.'s on Prof. Smalley's blackboard? Wake up! Someone's beating your time. Did you see the sketches of the typical Mercer boy and girl?

Have you noticed the new addition to the sisters of alcohol? Mary Ann Jackson is the proud possessor of a goodlooking Kappa Alpha pin. Whose is it Jack? Congratulations to you both.

Got a letter from Lem Libel the other day. He sent some stinkweeds for the writers of the Goose and Gander. In previous years they didn't get caught.
