CAUSE AND EFFECT
 The insurance adjuster who had been investigating the fire turned to go.
 "I came down here to find out the cause of this fire, and I have done so," he remarked.
 "That's what I want to know. What caused it?" demanded the house owner.
 "It's a plain case of friction."
 "What-ya-mean—friction?"
 "The fire was undoubtedly caused by rubbing a three-thousand dollar insurance policy on a two-thousand dollar house."—Everybody's.

An Oklahoma editor tells of an old Indian that came into his office to subscribe for the paper. The editor took the money, then the Indian wanted a receipt. The editor tried to talk him out of it, but Mr. Indian insisted on getting the receipt. After making it, the editor wanted to know why he was so persistent about wanting a receipt. The Indian said: "Me die, some time. Go to big gate and Saint Peter ask if I been good Indian. I say, yes. He say, did you pay your debts? I say, yes. He say, did you pay editor for paper? I say, yes. He say, where is your receipt? I no have it. I have to run all over hell for you to get receipt!"

THE ONLY TROUBLE
 Griggs: "Did that little deal of yours turn out a paying investment?"
 Briggs: "Oh, yes, but I wasn't the payee."—Boston Transcript.
