

SORORITY PLEDGES

Dressed alike in solid white evening dresses following formal pledging, the Phi Mu pledges are left to right, front row: Susan Gragg, Nell Pole, Shirlee Bloodworth, Ann Nickerson. Second row: Charlie Barron, Adelaide Tutt, Ann Miller, Gloria McAfee, Virginia Reese. Standing: Ruth Manau, Beverly Hill, Doris Bracken, Betty Sanders, Deenie Roberts, Frances Mills, and Betty Tom Smith.

Alpha Delta Pi pledges are left to right, first row: Dot Andrews, Reba Hamilton, Lauta Averett, Ruth Dunwoody, June Smalley, Ellen Willis, Miriam Evans. Second row: Martha Peterson, Aleta Massey, Dot Hamilton, Joyce Hobby, Barbara Gotthard, Marian Edwards, Lanelle Rimes, Myra Johnson. Standing: Myra Gaddy, Mary Jean Sell, Patsy Johnson, Becky Watson, Betty Langston, Margaret Barnhill, and Mary Howard.

—Photos by Jackson and Ray

In Style . . .

with Gerrie and Beckie

Fall, which brings that long-awaited moment to wear our new clothes, is at last here. Styles have definitely changed, so lend an ear to our chatter about the latest in feminine apparel.

The long skirt is here, and apparently to stay, so if you're not already among the smooth chicks who love 'em, chances are a dollar to a doughnut that you soon will be. Smart girls are adding length to last year's duds by attachments, or set-ins of taffeta, faille, satin, and grograine. The lines of the new skirts can be flattering to almost any girl, tall or short, since they can be varied from very straight and narrow to very full.

A word to the wise should be sufficient. Either give those big sloppy joes to the church drive, or take enough out of the side seams so that you can tuck them trimly in. Pull your sweater over a blouse and push it in under a straight skirt with belt, bag, and shoes to match, and there you'll have the latest thing from Vogue. For variation, try a dainty blouse and a full full skirt.

Also good this season for school and dates are wool plaid dresses. The basic gray dress with a gaily colored scarf will do wonders for a downcast spirit. Don't be afraid of the new color schemes—they look grand. Dress up for school, try anything exciting, then watch things come your way. Above all, don't forget that a bright smile is one of the best-looking things you can wear, and it will be fashionable at any season!

Chi Omega pledges left to right, first row: Juanita Tabb, Monnie Hubbard, Anne Lewis, Claire Foster. Second row, Carolyn Wise, Barbara Smith, Annabelle Trapp, Margaret Harrison, Betty Bell, Joan Mills, Gerrie Dixon, Alice Chandler; Standing, Virginia Garland, Lib Howard, Annelie Anderson, Dot Ware, Dean Kilgore, and Dot Walters.

SOCIALLY SPEAKING

by Alleen

The campus sororities concluded their Fall rush season on Monday, September 22, with preferential bidding at noon. Rushing began on Sunday, September 14, with rotating teas. Alpha Delta Pi entertained with a Black Tea, the Cardinal and Straw theme was used by the Chi Omega's while the Phi Mu's dressed in Chinese costume for theirs.

The second parties were: a Ranch Party given on Monday by the Chi O's, a Pirate Party by A. D. Pi on Tuesday, and the Phi Mu's entertaining on Wednesday with a Lodge Party. The formal and last parties were Thursday through Saturday nights, Chi O leading with a White Symphony party. The A. D. Pi's gave their Wedding party on Friday night, and the last affair was the Phi Mu traditional Dream Cake party.

Phi Mu elected the following officers at their first meeting of the year: Secretary, Jean Kinnett; and Pledge Director, Ruth Allen.

A Hot Dog party was given by the A. D. Pi sisters in their suite on Wednesday, September 24, following formal pledging.

The Chi Omega's gave a rush party for latecomers at their house on Friday, September 26, from 4:30 to 6:00. Those invited were Carol Moore, Blanche Willis, Joyce Rounds, Ann Wood, Blossom Craft, and Carol Volk. That night an Owl Hoot was given for the new pledges beginning at 11:00 P.M. and concluding with breakfast served by the sisters.

...The fraternities are making preparations for their rush season which begins with minor functions this week. The dates for these are: Gamma (Sigma Nu), September 29; K.A., September 30; Phi Delt, October 1; S.A.E., October 2; Kappa Sigma, October 3; Lambda Chi, October 4; and A.T.O., October 6.

Tattnall Square Shoe Shop
102 Montpelier Avenue
Across from Mercer

Welcome Mercer Students to Macon and to

STEPHEN'S

For Quality Ready-to-Wear
519 Cherry Street

COMPLIMENTS

OF

SILVERS 5-10-$1.00 STORES

THE STORE WITH OVER 20,000 ITEMS
FROM WHICH TO CHOOSE

THE J. W. BURKE COMPANY

Printers and Stationers

Phones: 74-75

Macon, Georgia

TATTNALL SQUARE PHARMACY

SODAS AND SUNDAES

Plate Lunches 50c — Steaks and Sandwiches

MATTHEWS JEWELERS

RAILROAD WATCH INSPECTORS

409 Broadway

Macon, Georgia

DRY CLEANING INDEPENDENT LAUNDRY

PHONE 1000

BUILDING MATERIALS CENTRAL SASH & DOOR CO.

Store:
354 Second Street

Factory:
Waterville Road

THE BEST DRESSED MEN WEAR

A Great Name in Clothing
"SCHWOBILT SUITS THE SOUTH"