"Would you wrap the Dentyne Chewing Gum as a gift, please?"

"That dame drives me nuts! 'Wrap it as a gift,' she says! As if anybody wanted to bother with fancy gift wrappings to get at that delicious, clean tasting Dentyne Chewing Gum with the rich, long lasting flavor. Dentyne is a gift at any price because it helps keep teeth white."

both were classmates of Professors Price, Barnett, and McClain at the seminary.

During the afternoon from 4:00 until 5:00 there will be a series of seminars which will be of vital interest to all students. The places of the seminars will be announced later. The topics of these seminars were chosen on the basis of the results of a survey which was conducted in chapel last week. Pastors of local Baptist churches who will lead these discussions include Drs. William E. Denham, Carl G. Campbell, and Eric Oesterle. Among the members of the faculty who will direct seminars are Rev. Jim Stertz, Professors Price, Barnett, and A. B. Anthony.

The guest speakers and above leaders will hold personal conferences in the afternoons with students who desire them. Many of the leaders will speak at the regular class hours in the classrooms stressing the relationship of their subjects with Christianity.

A Faculty-Student Reception will be held in the Faculty Trustee room on Monday evening at 8:00, to enable the students and members of the faculty to meet and talk with the visiting leaders. On the following nights at the same time, informal discussion will be held and will be of especial interest to students.

Several campus organizations have invited the speakers to address their members at their regular or a special meeting time. Moreover, many regularly scheduled events have been canceled or postponed in order to give pre-eminence to the Focus Week services.

Chairmen of the various groups of the steering committee are Ham Kellam, program; Douglas Bernard, seminars; Jule Greene, publicity; Hugh Wamble, arrangements; and Laurie Shannon, hospitality.

Cadet Promotions Are Reported Today

The promotion of ten cadets was announced today by Col. John Meade, PMS&T of the Mercer ROTC unit. The promotions, which became effective January 12, raised the cadet to ranks as follows:

To Cadet Second Lieutenant, John P. Hicks; to Tech Sgt., Gerald E. Camp, James H. Brooks; to Staff Sgt., Hubert F. Alexander, Jr., William S. Colvin; to Corporal, Joseph A. Donnan, Charles B. Tharp; to Pfc. George H. Davis, Barney L. Garrett, Ralph L. Smith.

These promotions were made on the basis of academic standing and performance on the drill field.

In releasing this announcement, Col. Meade stated that "considerable progress has been made in giving full academic credit for ROTC courses."

Advance notice has been given of the ROTC Summer Camp at Fort Benning, Ga., to be held June 21 through July 31. The camp is open to all advanced students, and travel expenses of five cents per mile will be paid by the Corps. Several of the Mercer Unit instruction staff are expected to be on duty during the camp.

Dr. W. B. Tatum, assistant to the president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky., will be on the campus January 28 and 29 to interview students planning to attend Southern Seminary upon graduation from college.

It's Another Headline Record!

Louis Prima's "With a Hey and a Ho and a Ho Ho Ho" (RCA Victor)

THE MAN who plays pretty for the people, Louis Prima, has a groovy new record!

A trumpet player of long experience, Louis knows when he's hit the right note in smoking pleasure too. He's a dyed-in-the-wool Camel fan. "Camels are the 'choice of experience' with me," says Prima.

Try Camels! Let your own experience tell you why, with smokers who have tried and compared, Camels are the "choice of experience."

CAMEL IS MY BRAND!

And here's another great record—

More people are smoking
CAMELS
than ever before!
