

CHI OMEGA GIVES ELEUSINIAN BALL; EARLY BREAKFAST FOLLOWS DANCE

The Alumnae of Phi Gamma Chapter of Chi Omega Fraternity gave its annual spring formal at the Shrine Mosque on Friday evening of April 2nd from 8:30 until 12:30 o'clock. The dance was followed by a breakfast at the Green Lawn Supper Club given by the sisters in honor of their dates.

Decorations of the Shrine carried out the theme of the dance which was an Eleusinian Ball. Silver grecian urns holding twined ivy decorated the windows in picturesque fashion backed by twisted white crepe paper. A backdrop over the handstand was a picture in pastels depicting the stately columns of the Greeks to further carry out the theme.

The girls in the leadout came through a large carnation covered horseshoe as their dates met them in front of a similar X. Miss Sarah Cook of Atlanta, president of the chapter headed the leadout with Billy Newsome. After the members and their dates were announced, they formed an X and horseshoe in the center of the floor. The Chi Omega nobreak was danced to the strains of the fraternity song, "I Love You Truly."

Others in the leadout were Miss Mary Steele, Vice-President, with Jack Landrum; Miss Jeannette Wiggins, Secretary, with Bailey Phillips; Miss Anne Fleming, Treasurer, with Harold Shuler; Miss Jacquelyn Ward, Pledge-Trainer, with Glenn Wilkes; Miss Alice Crimmins with Pete Williams; Miss Ernestine King with Tucker Singleton; Miss Katherine McCook with Duncan Bazemore; Miss Louise Smith with Jack Watson; Miss Betty Atkinson with Pat Poe; Miss Juliette Batts with Watson Turk; Miss Beverly Buchanan with Frank Hall; Miss Jean Feagin with Charlie Johnson; Miss Sue Fitts with Bill Hitchcock; Miss

And Miss Virginia Garland with Joe Andrews; Miss Clare Foster with Warren Brenson; Miss Lillian Moye with Clarence Ray; Miss Dean Kilgore with George Willis; Miss Monie Hubbard with W. L. Jameson; Miss Alice Chandler with Robert Bone; Miss Carolyn Wise with Charlie Davis, Miss Annette Anderson with Lyman Delk; Miss Barbara Smith with Garrett Thornton; Miss Juanita Tabb with Tommy Genealot; Miss Margaret Harrison with Aubert Kinsaw, Miss Annabelle Trapp with John Stewart, Miss Betty Bell with Bill Everill, Miss Jackie Wolfe with Jimmy Faulkner, Miss Elizabeth Howard with Broadus Willoughby.

Who was wearing what this Easter, and at the Chi Omega dance will be the topic of discussion for today.

Everyone that wore one of the new spring prints froze and the big spring hats were gone with the winter wind this Easter. Around Macon Anne Harris looked charming and quite proper for the winter weather in black, yet spring was definitely represented with black patent shoes and hat.

Rosemary Ricks wore a brown and white thin striped suit with a short coat with a flaired tail. A large collar was featured and held in place with the gold buttons that criss-crossed down the front. The long straight skirt had that new look and the ensemble was completed with brown accessories.

Dressed in white over rose, Jo Jordan's formal for the Chi O formal was extra lovely. The back was draped and held with roses.

The new short bob looks as though it were designed for Nat Blossom, who wore her blonde tresses cut just below the ear at the dance.

Of course all the Chi Omegas looked lovely, so need we go into detail?

Physicists Attend Oak Ridge Meeting

The Physics staff of the University and several members of the Physics club will attend the Southeastern Section meeting of the American Physical society at Oak Ridge, Tenn., on April 9 and 10.

Approximately thirteen students will make the trip by automobile, leaving tomorrow at 10:00 a.m. Dr. and Mrs. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holt, Reba Moye, Adena Duggan, Robert Dean, Robert Lehman, Dick Hudson, Ralph McElreath, James Collins, Melvin Brooks, and Stanley Tanner have been registered to attend the meeting.
