

HATCHER'S HATCHINGS

SO WOULD WE

Prof. Lewis (in Freshman English) "How would you punctuate the sentence: 'A beautiful girl was walking down the street?'"

Freshman: "I would make a dash after the beautiful girl."

HIGHER EDUCATION

Freshman: "After this year you will get your M. A., I suppose."

Senior: "No, I'll get my J. O. B."

GREAT STRIDES

Prof.: "The growth of the human fingernails comes about by the proliferation of the Malpighian layer of cells."

Biology Shark: "But last week, Doctor, you said it came about by the perichal division of the superficial initial."

Prof.: "Yes, but my dear boy, since then Science has made great strides."

IDEA

Scrub: "How many hours are you taking?"

Letterman: "Nineteen."

Scrub: "Pretty heavy. How much do you sleep?"

Letterman: "Nineteen."

DYED, BUT NOT DEAD

"I thought Henry was rushing a blonde."

"He was, but she dyed."

ASK HIM

Little Boy (at Glee Club): "Ma, what's that man up in front shaking his stick at the lady for?"

Mother: "Hush, son; that's the director. He's not shaking his stick."

Little Boy: "Then what is she hollering for?"

DEFINED

Dr. Fountain: "What's a dry dock?" "A physician who won't give you a liquor prescription."

A MAIDEN'S PRAYER

"Dear Lord, I ask nothing for myself. Only give my mother a son-in-law."

SIGNS

The signs of the time may be electric, but the beauty signs are painted.

P. D. Q.

She: "You have such beautiful lips. They would look good on a girl."

He: "Well, I never missed an occasion."

DAYS

To forget—yesterday. To do—to-day. To worry about—to-morrow. To look forward to—pay day. To look back to—childhood days. To postpone—dooms' day. —Penn. Chronicle.
