Dr. Hugh Brimm, a former Mercer professor, who is chairman of the Southern Baptist Social Service Commission, spoke at Vespers on Wednesday night, Nov. 2. Tonight Miss Pearl Todd, Baptist Missionary to China, will conduct a Y. W. A. mission study and speak at Vespers.

The Foreign Mission Band had a deputation to the First Baptist Church on Sunday night, October 30. The subject of the program was "Missions." Gene Ethridge gave a testimony, and Glynn Ford gave a report on his summer mission work in Arizona.

The Life Service Band elected two new officers recently. Delia Durham was elected vice-president and program chairman. A new office, that of Missionary Chairman, was created, and "Mickie" Roberts was elected to fill it.

The Gauntlet, the newspaper of the Baptist Student Union, is sponsoring a contest for the naming of "Lucy's Little Sister." Judges for the contest, which closes November 4, are Miss "Tony" Bates, chairman, Hazel Boyd, and David Jordan. In order to enter the contest, one should write his suggestion for a name for the bus and sign his own name on a slip of paper, depositing it in a box which will be placed in the Coop for this purpose. The judging will be done so, that the decision will be impartial. The prize will be a year's subscription to The Christian Herald, or the same amount of money applied to a subscription to some other Christian publication.

A prayer room, which will be available to all Mercer students, was formally opened at the B.S.U. Convention last week-end. This room is situated in the basement of Tattnell Square Baptist Church.

Co-op Love Affair Encouraging As Lucky Lassie Gets Pinned

By Connie Hall

It all happened in the co-op last Wednesday. Kenneth Hunt was sitting in a booth very quietly minding his own business, when who should walk in and sit down by him but Ruth Dunwoody. Ken looked at Ruth and Ruth looked at Ken. Then all of a sudden they realized that this was it! They were in love. So what did they do but get pinned. Why they even had pictures made to help them remember this great moment in their lives. If you've given up all hope of ever finding your true love, don't be discouraged. You never can tell; maybe the next time it will be sitting in the dimly lit co-op listening to the last sweet refrain of "LOVE SICK BLUES" when in comes your true love, and BONG, YOU'VE GOT HIM!

SCENES AROUND CAMPUS
Joyce Patch and Sonny Henderson walking toward M.E.P. "What happened" to Carlyle?—somebody sitting under my window, but due to the darkness of the night and my poor vision, I'd be afraid to say who it was—Dot Andrews and Bob Rose sitting on steps—Annie Marie and Bob, everywhere you turn.—Everybody looking forward to this week's moot court case. This is it—number of Mercer students giving Mercer yell at Ray McKinley dance in Athens.

I HEAR

that Joe has finally stopped crying—that Jim Kirby (one of the two-guns) has an admirer over at M.E.P.—that Harry Smith and June Curis have been seeing quite a lot of each other lately.—that Dot Hamilton and Tommy Perkins had quite a bit of trouble Sunday night.—that John B. is not going steady.—that Joe Brown and Jean Carlyle are getting along mighty fine.—that Carlisle M. was right glad to see a certain little girl from Sylvester last weekend—that Sam M. has been going to Perry a mighty lot lately.—that Bobby Simpson is quite "the one"—that Aubrey Hestlin has been spending his weekends at Bessie Tift.—that a certain Sigma Nu has an awfully hard time keeping up with Nancy Winter—that Richard Jones has a secret admirer—that these Smiths certainly are attracted to one another—that the sheriff caused lots of people a little trouble Saturday night (they said they were playing bridge)—that a new sorority (SSS, that is) has been organized on the campus.

Last Friday night the Alpha Delta Pi's gave their traditional Halloween party at the Ingleside Community Club. Social Chairman Ruth Dunwoody was in charge of the affair, which began at 8:30 and lasted until 11:00. A teddy bear hunt was held, which resulted in four couples "trapping" little blue and white teddy bears. The group enjoyed square dancing, bobbing for apples, bridge, and various games.

Alpha Tau Omega fraternity was entertained last night by Chi Omega sorority in the first of a series of open houses for fraternity men. Each week Chi Omega will invite a different fraternity to visit the house. An open house for the entire campus and members of the faculty will also be given by the Chi Omegas next Tuesday night.

The brothers of Lambda Chi Alpha entertained the pledges and their dates at a light chicken dinner at Ragan's Park last night. The affair began at 7:30, and after dinner the group enjoyed games and dancing. Brother Fred Kelly was in charge of the party.

Dobbins Captures Horseshoe Crown

Mayes Dobbins, Savannah, captured the 1949 Open Horseshoe Tournament held at Mercer, and took the championship trophy for the second time.

Dobbins won the tournament year before last, and no tournament was held last year. He stated that the competition was best in the latter meet.

The contest lasted several weeks, due to the fact that a large number of boys entered the meet and pairings were not easy to play off quickly. A total of 25 students entered the tournament.

Going into the semi-final rounds this week were Buddy Seaman against Berry Copping, and Bob Blackburn pitting against twice-champion Mayes Dobbins. Copping defeated Seaman and faced Dobbins for the final play-off.

Rules required that a winner must win three out of five games up to the finals, and in order to win the finals must win four out of seven games.

Phi Mu sorority held open house Oct. 25 from eight until eleven for all fraternity men on the campus. A short program was presented and those taking part included Laurie Shannon, Blanche Mallory, Ann Starr, Florence Milling, Doris Bracken, Joyce Patch, Beverly McKenzie and Jackie Johnson.

Yesterday, the Phi Mu suite was the scene of an informal coke party for all the girls on the campus.

The Georgia Gamma chapter of Phi Delta Theta will have its annual Sweetheart Ball this Saturday from eight till twelve, at which time they will present their new sponsor. All past sponsors will be present and will also be honor guests. President Jimmy Hiers will lead the leadout with Miss Betty Bryan.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon received a surprise visit from the national secretary, who quizzed Denny Garner and Dan Dubberly on fraternity facts. Denny and Dan were initiated last night.

The Inter-Fraternity Council will have Dean Hudson for its annual fall dance. The dance will be held next Wednesday, Nov. 9, at the Armory. Members of the council and their dates will be presented in a leadout.

Ciceronian Holds First Meeting

The first meeting of the Ciceronian Literary Society, oldest organization on the Mercer campus, was held Tuesday, October 18, in the Theology building. The meeting opened with Charles Cureton greeting both the old and new members.

Mr. Charles Stone, guest speaker, made a talk on the history and purpose of the society. Following Mr. Stone's talk, light refreshments were served.

Mercer Masonic Club No. 1014 will hold its regular meeting in Room 112 Tuesday morning at 10:00 A.M. All members are urged to attend. Visiting brethren cordially and fraternally invited.
