SIGMA NU FRAT VISITS MT. VERNON

The Mercer chapter of the Sigma Nu's traveled down to Mount Vernon, Ga. last Saturday, October 28, to meet Brewton Parker's team in a well-played football game.

Glenn Wilkes is the manager of the team there. Though the Sigma Nu's were not victorious, the game was one to be long remembered.

Phi Delta Theta Holds Party

Ga. Gamma of Phi Delta Theta held a barbecue supper last Saturday night, the 28th of October, at the lodge of Mr. E. Y. Mallary, one of the chapter's local alumni. A Halloween theme was carried out in the decorations which included jack-o-lanterns, corn stalks and skeletons hanging from tree limbs.

Supper was served on the patio, buffet style, and following this, the fraternity staged several individual skits featuring Don Lewis and Sonny Henderson. The Phi Delta Theta Quartette entertained with several fraternity songs and led the group in a song fest. Climaxing the evening's entertainment, there followed the Phi Delta Circus complete with a band composed vocally of Keith Benning and Don Lewis. Starring in this extravaganza were George Jones and his hightrope walking act followed by several renditions of Al Jolson melodies. Jim Mount kept the crowd in amazement with his great feats of juggling milk bottles and balls simultaneously. Closing the circus was Jim Waters who performed his fire eating stunt for the group.

Dancing and moonlight strolls followed the entertainment.

Miss Joyce Patch Announced As Kappa Sigma Pledge Sweetheart

MISS JOYCE PATCH Pledge Sponsor of KS

Joyce Patch, Moultrie, has been selected as pledge sweetheart by the pledges of Kappa Sigma. Ronald Eason, Macon, was elected pledge president.

Other officers elected by the 21 pledges of the fraternity include: Bobby Bonner, Conyers, vice-president, and Gilbert Martin, Cartersville, secretary-treasurer.

Joyce is a member of Phi Mu sorority, Glee Club, Mercer Players, and A Cappella choir. She is secretary of Ciceronian Literary society.

After the election the pledges adjourned to the Co-op to congratulate their new sponsor. Ronald Eason presented Joyce with a pledge pin of the fraternity, and a bouquet of roses was given her later.

Chi Omega Sorority Scores Hit With Informal Hobohemia Party

Chi Omega held their annual fall party at Jonesco. This year the theme was Hobohemia. The Chi Omegas and dates came dressed in proper hobo attire for an evening of food, fun, and dancing.

The pledges were in charge of the program which was planned in secret to surprise the sisters. Jonesco was decorated to represent a typical hobo gathering place even down to a campfire surrounded by empty tin cans.

Betty Jo Bernard, master of ceremonies, led the group in singing some Chi O songs, after which Lib Morgan, Martha Willis, and Betty Lynn Well tap-danced.

Jean Smith gave a recitation of "Life Gets Te'jus Don't It?" The main feature of the entertainment was the "sad" drama of Little Nell presented by Carleen Newell, Jewel Bentley, Mary Roberts, and Carolyn Fretwell.

Favors of peanuts tied in a hobo bundle were given to everyone.

June Curl was in charge of the party. Misses Varner and Beckman were chaperones.

Socially Speaking

By Peggy Wood

What with mid-terms, and a few other incidental occasions, our old friend Cupid has been rather neglected, but nevertheless he has not been idle. Here is some of the reports on his accomplishments.

Marion Hood is pinned to Cecil Brooks.

Martha King is pinned to a good looking K.A. from the University of Ga.

Barbara Smith (Smitty) also seems to like Ga. pretty well, but prefers the Lambda Chi's. (She's pinned to one!)

Betty Tom Smith is now sporting a Phi Delta Theta pin, namely, John Buchanan's.

Ann Starr is wearing Burt Arnold's ATO pin.

And Anne Thomas went still another step and said those final vows. The lucky boy was Bill George.

Our heartiest congratulations to you all!

It seems that Cupid has not been the only busy one. Several of the sororities and fraternities have initiated ex-pledges. Rheta White and Barbara Castleberry were initiated into Alpha Delta Pi Monday, October 30, and Marvin Peck was initiated into Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Our congratulations to you, too!
