MISS PAULA SMITH

Kappa Alpha's Enjoy Party

The brothers and pledges of the Kappa Alpha Order held their first informal party of the year last Saturday at Jonesco. The party started out to be a nice quiet hayride, but turned out to be a "square dance" and talent show.

Brother Forrest Hagan called the square dances. The well-known Kappa Alpha Quartet, consisting of Johnny McCreary, Shelton Harp, Terrill Miller, and Al Phillips, gave several renditions.

Fair Given by Chi O Pledges

The pledges of Chi Omega Sorority extended invitations to the pledges of Alpha Delta Pi and Phi Mu to attend the Chi Omega Fair, which was held in their new chapter room on November 19th at ten o'clock.

The chapter room was gaily decorated in cardinal and straw, and was complete with fortune telling, tossing, dart throwing, and a floor show. Refreshments were in keeping with the spirit of the time, consisting of hand-cut apples, roasted peanuts, cookies, and cakes. Betty Jo Bernard, president of the Chi Omega pledge class, acted as the "barker" and welcomed the girls to the Chi Omega Carnival.

In the course of the evening sorority songs were sung and a spirit prevailed around the group which was fitting to the festivities of a fair.

Phi Delta Theta's Have Stag Party

The brothers and pledges of Phi Delta Theta enjoyed a get-together in the form of a stag fish-try last Friday at Houston Lake. Bob Haggett, John Morris, George Jones, and Jack Bledsoe were in charge of arrangements.

Dead Honored By Sigma Nu's

On Sunday, November 12, the Sigma Nu's attended Vineville Baptist Church to honor their dead in a Memorial Service.

The service was held in honor of the Sigma Nu's killed in service during the two World Wars.

Miss Marjorie Stephens Selected Sweetheart of Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Miss Marjorie Stephens of Bainbridge has been selected by the members of Psi Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon as their girl of the year.

Miss Stephens is a member of Y.W.A. and Chi Omega Sorority. She was pinned as their sweetheart by Walter Leggett, president, at an open house held by the fraternity.

Hay Ride Held By Phi Mu's

The Phi Mu's held their annual hayride last Saturday night, November 18, at Lake Jonesco.

Joan Wilson was in charge of the program, at which time the pledges sang songs that they had written for Phi Mu. After two humorous skits were presented Mary Neil Johnson led the group in singing the sorority songs.

Joan Smith, Hawkinsville, was in charge of the hayride, and the chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Heck and Mr. Henry Warneck.

Sponsors Honor Sigma Nu's

Miss Ann Beall and Miss Paula Smith, sponsor and pledge sponsor respectively, entertained brothers and pledges at a coffee hour Sunday night at M.E.P.

Tea Given for MICA Members

A tea was given by the sponsors of MICA at the home Mrs. Zeb Vance in honor of the new members. Other sponsors are Mrs. McLeod Bryan and Miss Frances Floyd.

An all day retreat was held Saturday at Camp Joyeliff. A large group of the members enjoyed the outing. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Vance and Mr. and Mrs. McLeod Bryan.

Sigma Nu's Hold Open House

Sellers Parker was in charge of an open house held Sunday, November 12, for the alumni, brothers and dates.

The event took place in the Sigma Nu Suite between the hours of three and six. Miss Anne Beall and Miss Paula Smith, sponsor and pledge sweetheart, respectfully were honored.

Socially Speaking

By Peggy Wood

That never-fade little promoter of romance shared several Mercer students again this week. Can't you imagine what it will be like when spring rolls around? Nevertheless—

Congratulations to Charles Hill and Martha Claxton, who were pinned this past week.

Also, our congratulations are due to Lamar Clements, who pinned a girl from G.S.C.W.

Best wishes to Dick Benson and Laverne Murphy who are now pinned. We think that's mighty fine.

Our heartiest congratulations to Elaine Meeks, Nichols, who pledged Chi Omega. Also, best wishes to Aune Powers, Douglas; Ee McDaniel, Macon, and Gladys Evans, Atlanta, who were initiated Wednesday night, Nov. 8.

Cureton Heads Phi Delta Theta

On Wednesday night, November 15, Phi Delta Theta selected the following boys as officers for the year:

They are Charles Cureton, Macon, president; Ernest Dario, Macon, warden; George Jones, Sparta, secretary; Henry Heflin, Atlanta, chaplain; Don Lewis, Macon, choirster; Henry Heflin, Atlanta, librarian.

Our heartiest congratulations to the newly elected officers.
