Socially Speaking

By Peggy Wood

Belated, though most sincere congratulations go to Marbeth Ursery and John Carter who are engaged. My sincere apologies for this tardy salutation.

Also, our best wishes to Barbara Baxley and Rufus Lester who are pinned.

Sincere greetings to Miss Varner, and welcome back. Luckily, the weather thawed enough to allow her return. We were afraid she would be snow-bound for the remainder of the quarter, but nature favored us with her return.

Congratulations to the new officers of Kappa Sigma. To Ray Tucker, the new president, Emory Wilson, vice president, Roy Johnson, secretary, and Jim Ray, Treasurer.

Also our congratulations to the new officers of Delta Theta. To Charles Cureton, the new president; Ernest Durlow, warden; George Jones, secretary; Henry Heflin, chaplain; Donald Lewis, chorister and all the other officers.

By the way Bill George what's this we hear about the tiger mistaking you for a tree. The circus is a fine place so Bill thanks. Anyway the S.A.E.'s enjoyed it.

The Chi Omega's were hostesses to Miss Shirley Drake, their chapter visitor from Cincinnati, Ohio. She was their guest Sunday and Monday.
