

New Kappa Sigma officers are Emory Wilson, vice president; Ray Tucker, president, and Roy Johnson, secretary.

Socially Speaking

By Peggy Wood

Belated congratulations to Hunter Johnson and "Buzz" Alderman who have been pinned for several weeks.

Bobby Simpson, brother of Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity, is now pinned to a Wesleyanne. She is from Shady Dale, Ga. Congratulations, Bobby.

Congratulations to Jackie Means, who received the ring, from Bob White and joined the ranks of our engaged couples.

Speaking of engaged couples let me correct the announcement in last weeks column concerning Maribeth Ursery and John Calhoun, not Jim Carter.

The Chi Omega's had an informal get together in honor of their departing members, Janice Weathers, Jean Carlisle Brown, Pansy Abbott, and Nancy McElmurray.

The sisters and pledges of Phi Mu enjoyed a party in the suite Wednesday evening, December 13. Names had been drawn previously, and gifts selected that would please a small child. These presents will be given to the underprivileged children.

The ADPI's and KA's gave a party for the children of the Georgia Industrial Home in Macon yesterday afternoon. Last evening, a party for the sisters and pledges was held. Big sisters and little sisters exchanged gifts.

Congratulations to Seale Hipp, Lagrange, the new Archan of Pi Kappa Phi. Also to the other officers, John Arnold, Jim Lancaster, Ken Wall, Grady Kell, Laverne Saltgaver, and J. C. Adcock.

The KA's enjoyed a small party in the suite with Miss Corrine Byrd.

Speaking of parties the KA's have planned a great New Year's celebration.

The Freshman class certainly deserves a big hand for a swell party. More gatherings of this kind should be carried on.

As cupid leaves for his vacation he will probably find many wedding and pinnings to next year we will have plenty of campus gossip.

Here wishing all a happy New Year and a Merry Christmas.

Chi Omega Has Party for Children

The Chi Omegas gathered in their chapter room December 12, at 3:30 around a gaily decorated Christmas tree to entertain some underprivileged children. Presents for the children were spread under the tree. Everyone sang carols, then, Joanne Parker put on a skit about three billy goats gruff. Mary Helen Sims read "The Night Before Christmas."

The climax of the affair was the arrival of Santa Claus (Bob Lanyon) who presented the children with their gifts and a stocking filled with fruits, nuts, and candy.

After every gift had been opened and the clamor had died down the children were served ice cream and cookies. At the end of the party the children were returned to their homes.

ATO Christmas Party Is Held

The members of Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity held a Christmas Party at the Ingleside Community Clubhouse last night.

For the program three humorous skits were presented by the pledges. George Deadwyler, president of the pledge class, was in charge of the entertainment.

The clubhouse was decorated with a large Christmas tree and vines and greenery were used throughout.

Refreshments were served by Burt Arnold, Glyn Pelham and Dent Bostick.

S.N. Sponsors Are Honored

On Friday night, December 8, Misses Ann Beall and Paula Smith, sponsors of Sigma Nu Fraternity, were guests of honor at a party given at the home of Mrs. Howard Hartley.

Members of the party included the brothers and pledges and their dates. Mr. T. P. Haines was also a guest of the party. Mrs. Hartley is the wife of a former Sigma Nu at Mercer.

Entertainment was provided by Seab Miller, who acted as Master of Ceremonies, Sellers Parker, Raymond Pinson, and Bob Bonner. Seab and Bonner gave a rendition of "Casy at the Bat," which was followed by an original version of "The Thing," by Sellers Parker and Raymond Ponson.

Mrs. Pate, mother of Mrs. Hartley, delighted the group with several pianologues of her own composition. After this, the group gathered around and sang Christmas carols.

Kappa Sigs Have Christmas Party

Last night the Kappa Sigs held their Christmas party at Lake Jonesco where the group enjoyed a spaghetti supper and hay ride.

Members and dates left town on a hay-filled truck. After supper the Kappa Sigma quartet, composed of Billy Wilson, Wallace Faulkner, Jimmy Lewis, and Alton Childs, entertained the group. A short skit was presented, followed by dancing and singing of fraternity songs.

Tomorrow night John Burge, Kappa Sigma alumnus, will entertain the Kappa Sigs at his annual Christmas party, which will be held at his home in Shirley Hills.

There will be no classes on January 1, but classes will be held on January 2. Also classes will meet on Saturday, January 6, instead of Monday. All absences on Saturday will be marked.
