Socially Speaking

By Peggy Wood

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the coke parties began again. Phi Mu held the first bring your coke party in their suite for all sorority and independent girls.

Speaking of Phi Mu, I understand they are planning a big winter formal on Friday night, Feb. 2, at the Shrine Mosque. This function is being sponsored by the Alumni Association and is open to the entire campus.

While we are talking about dances, let's congratulate the KA's on a swell dance and particularly on their choice of sponsor.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon was entertained by the Minerva Club on January 18 at the lodge. Members of the faculty and others were present. Their quartet, composed of Marvin Peck, Buddy Seaman, Edwin Hart and Hyden Bryant, sang several selections.

Initiations have been taking place recently. Those proudly wearing the pin of Lambda Chi Alpha are Joseph L. Bailey, Jr., of Augusta, William A. Barton of Meigs, and Jimmy L. Bearden of Calhoun.

Buddy Seaman of Waycross is now the proud wearer of a Sigma Alpha Epsilon pin.

Kappa Alpha's newest brother is Jack Beck of Macon, who was their outstanding pledge of the year. He was initiated last Friday.

Congratulations to all the new initiates.

From our alumni we find that Myra Gaddy and Charles Swilley are engaged. Congratulations to both of you.

The members of Phi Delta Theta serenaded Reta White the other night. As you know she is pinned to Phi-Delt.

Chapel exercises found Phi Delta Theta winning the volleyball tournament. Congratulations to you and also to all the members of the all-star team.

While we are giving out congratulations we certainly must not omit the new Pi Kappa Phi officers. Edsel Dorough of Vienna is the new chaplain and Floyd Thomas of Waycross is the new sergeant-at-arms. Congratulations!

By the way, Miss Ree Cunningham, of Madison, happens to be the first sponsor of Delta Theta Phi law fraternity. Congratulations, Ree.

Far from least congratulations go to Don Reeves, Forrest Hagan, Jerry Conner, Paul Kaylor and other members of Student Government for some grand Bear Day activities.

Here for the weekend were Miss Noma Wofford, Miss Gay King, Miss Ann Stanley, Miss Janice Weathers, Rube Jones, Charles Christian, Harry Smith, Jr., and many more.

Congratulations to the new pledge officers of Pi Kappa Phi.

The evening dress Carrie Burns was wearing the other night was something out of this world. It looked as if she had picked it out of Vogue especially for the occasion.

Congratulations to Alpha Tau Omega for the prize winning float and to "Sonny" Sharp and Ree Cunningham, the new Toby and Tot. Congratulations to Roy Johnson, new secretary, and Curt Ingram, new treasurer, of Kappa Sigma Fraternity.

By the way we understand Truet Gannon is expecting to get married real soon. When will it be Truet?

Congratulations, ATO's Duffie B is now living in the dormitory.

MISS KATHLEEN SMITH
Sponsor of Kappa Alpha

Miss Kathleen Smith Is Named Sweetheart of Kappa Alpha

Miss Kathleen Smith, of Dublin, was re-named Kappa Alpha's sponsor for this year at the fraternity's Robert E. Lee ball last Saturday night at the YWCA.

Miss Smith is a sophomore at Wesleyan this year and is a member of YWCA, the Spanish Club and was freshman representative on the May Court.

The presentation came before intermission during the dance.

Decorations carried out the theme "Waiting on the Robert E. Lee with the orchestra sitting on the deck of the ship Robert E.

Lee, which was anchored at the dock. Along the walls streamers of crimson and gold were used, and at the back was a oig painting of the General with two white columns on either side and red drapes around the picture.

Above this painting was a Confederate flag and below were white magnolias, mounted on a black cloth.

Madden Reid, president, presented Miss Smith with one dozen red and gold roses.

The Emory "Aces" played for the occasion.

Kappa Phi Kappa Zeb Vances Hears Sammons Entertain.

Bill Simmons, a member of the Bibb County Board of Education, spoke to the members of Kappa Phi Kappa at a luncheon at the Sidney Lanier Home on High Street last night.

Mr. Simmons reviewed the past history of education and hold how it had come from the sign language, through the letters, on to reading and then to education.

Those present included Dr. Gail Carver, and Dr. E. M. Highsmith, faculty adviser.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Vance entertained reception in the Faculty-Trustee Room last Friday from 4 to 5 o'clock.

Presidents of all campus organizations and members of Student Government were invited to attend. Punch and cookies were served by Mary Helen Simms and Jane Fusbee as the students listened to Dr. Warmingham give a poem and tell interesting facts he had collected.

Alpha Delta Pi To Hold Party

The members of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority will hold a tweet party at the Policeman's Lodge tomorrow night.

Food will be served and afterwards square dancing will be the featured entertainment.
