

Socially Speaking

By PEGGY CARLISLE

Well, back after a long week of mid-terms to bring you all the latest society news. Of course, about this time every quarter, things begin to slow down, and "It's in the Book" and there isn't much news.

Congratulations: While some of us were busy with our last minute studying there are others that were busy getting pinned and so forth. Congratulations to Lucile and Don. We hope you passed your mid-terms also.

Another student in this category was Benny McFarther, who got pinned Friday night after mid-terms.

Also to Caroline Fowler who received a ring this past weekend. . . . To Maxine Hunt, new A.T.O. pledge sweetheart. . . . to the new Phi Delt pledge officers, president John Peterson and Chorister Paul Dexter . . . to Dudley Horton, Bob McCue, and Jeannine Stringer . . . Freshman Class officers . . . to the new Phi Mu pledges, Dot McCreary and Carol Balcom . . . to Dudley Horton, president of Sigma Nu pledges, Bob McCue, vice president, Duane Akin, secretary, and Carlton Hearn, treasurer.

To James Hughes, John Jiles and Bob McElroy, who have just been initiated into Kappa Sigma . . . to the new Phi Mu pledge officers with Dot Poole as president, Barbara Fisher, vice-president, Ann Markwalter, secretary, and Hannah McDonald, treasurer . . . and to Ann Kinnett, Pan Hellenic representative . . . to Chi Omega and Phi Mu who won their volleyball games Monday night.

Welcome back: to Betty McGahee, who was out of school two weeks recovering from a wreck. We are all glad to see Charleen Bearden, Louise Brazier, and Margie Maughan, who were visiting the Chi Omega suite last week. Also to Jack Perry, Billy Huggins, Lane Hardy, and Sellars Parker visiting the Sigma Nu's.

We are very glad to have Miss Ted Harrison, field counsellor of Alpha Delta Pi, and Miss Betty Carol Pace, chapter adviser of Chi Omega, on the campus this week. We hope that they enjoyed their visit.

Thanks: to Mary Binns for the fine vesper programs we have been having . . . to Winkie Harris for the fight song and entertaining chapel programs.

What Will Your Attitude Be If Your Candidate Is Not Elected?

By Theresal Mann

Though a poll of this type reaches no actual conclusion in the subject discussed, it is one of general interest to everyone at this time. The questions were asked in this order: Who was your choice as candidate? Did you vote? and What will be your attitude if your candidate loses?

The following answers were given:

Grady Newberry: I like Ike. Yes, I will vote. If he loses, I'll never say another word.

Charles Waddy: Stevenson! I'm voting today (Tuesday, Nov. 4). I'll accept the outcome, come what may.

Barbara Castleberry: I wanted Russell, but since the Southern delegates remained with the Democratic party, I think that they know best, and we should follow

Maxine Hunt Is ATO Sweetheart

Miss Maxine Hunt, of Thomson, Ga., was named Alpha Tau Omega pledge sweetheart at a banquet given last Saturday night at Pinebrook.

She is a member of Mercer players, W.A.A., Y.W.A., and a Chi Omega Pledge.

Phi Mu Retreat Is On Saturday

Blue Bell Lodge will be the scene of the Phi Mu pledge retreat Saturday Nov. 8.

The retreat will last all day and will include the sisters and pledges. Talks will be given by the sisters.

Four Lambda Chi Attend Assembly

The twenty-third general assembly of the Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity was held at the Waldorf-Astoria from August 31st through Sept. 3. Each of the one-hundred and forty-two chapters located in the United States and Canada were represented.

Brother Jean Hersholt, better known as Dr. Christian, delivered the keynote address pertaining to the Jack E. Mason Foundation. Four men from Zeta Omega Zeta attended the assembly in New York. They were Jack Zorn, Bobby Hill, Joe Tucker, and John Woods.

Three Campus Notables Selected For Membership on Cardinal Key

Cardinal Key, sister organization to Blue Key, held its fall tapping in chapel on Tuesday. The sorority, which stands for high ideals in leadership, selected three for membership.

Those selected were:

Suzanne Edmondson, Cluster staff, Mercer players, publicity chairman and circle leader Y.W.A., activities chairman and treasurer of Chi Omega, secretary of B.S.U., treasurer of Kappa Delta Epsilon, and secretary of Mercer players.

Marlene Timmerman — Mercer president and state president of Y.W.A., president of Mercer players, chorister of M.I.C.A., Alpha Psi Omega, devotional chairman of Life Service Band, World Mission Band, B.S.U., executive council.

Martha Jean Aderhold—vice president and program chairman of M.I.C.A., vice president of Life Service Band, B.S.U. greater council, Religious Education Association secretary of Y.W.A., cheerleader, intramurals.

Deputations Are Set for Sunday

Members of B.S.U. will make the first deputation of this school year Sunday, Nov. 9. Plans are made to visit the First Baptist and Central Baptist churches of Gainesville, Georgia, and First Baptist Church of Buford, Ga., on this date.

Mercer students will present the programs. At Central Church Mac Lipsey is in charge of the program, and Bobby Woodall will preach. Buddy Ridley is in charge of the program at First Baptist Church, and Alvin Shackelford will be preaching. At the First Baptist Church in Buford, George Deadwyler will have the program, and Joe Watson will conduct the preaching service.

Deputations are being planned for the entire year.

Phi Mu Sisters Entertain Frats

On Wednesday, November 5, Phi Mu held its annual open house. Beginning at 7:00, the fraternities came in alphabetical order at thirty minute intervals.

An entertaining program was rendered by the sisters, after which fraternity and sorority songs were sung.

Light refreshments were served.

Hamburger Fry Held at Jonesco

On Friday evening of Oct. 24, the Lambda Chi's had a hay ride and hamburger fry at Jonesco. A warm fire welcomed the brothers and pledges with their dates. The program included dancing-singing, led by John Woods, "It's in the Book" by Don Carter, and Dan Roberts played several selections on his harmonica.

Professor Charles LeQuinn was chaperone for the evening.

The pledge class officers were announced at the party. They are: Dan Roberts, president; Ralph Rourie, vice president; Laurance Harley, secretary, and Jack Bray, treasurer.

Kappa Sigs Set Weekend Party

The members of Kappa Sigma Fraternity will leave Mercer tomorrow with their dates for a weekend houseparty at Pine Mountain. A complete program for the week will be set up.

The group will return late Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Haines and Joe Rush will chaperone the party.

Emory Wilson is in charge.

Sororities Go To Dreamland

Last Monday night at 10:00 the Alpha Delta Pi pledges opened the gates to Dreamland for the pledges of Chi Omega and Phi Mu.

The recreations of bright shining stars in a room of hazy blue gave the feeling that Mount Sandman was very near. All enjoyed a bedtime snack of cokes and cookies, after which Tula Robinson took the pajama-clad gals on a journey to Slumberland where they visited Winkin', Blinkin', and Nod, characterized respectively by Fay Williams, Zelna Harlin, and Peggy White.

Before bidding farewell to this delightful land of dreams, Ann Coggin led the group in songs of tribute to the different sororities.

At 11:00 the pledge departed and the dreams came to end—as all good dreams do.
