PINS WERE IN STYLE IN THE EASTER PARADE

In an Easter bonnet
A green dress with a Sigma Nu pin on it.
Walked Nanette Bell in the Easter Parade.
Jimmy Carnes was all in clover,
As he looked her over.
He thought she was the prettiest girl in the Easter parade.

Alice Tate was "in the pink" in the Easter Parade. She was wearing Davis Kilgore's KA pin.

There was nothing blue about Tula Robertson except her dress. She had donned Jack Gordon's SAE pin.

Lee Grogan's Kappa Sig pin added to the beauty of Jane Haywood's Easter dress.

Three girls had Chi Omega pledge pins on their Easter frocks . . . Elizabeth Ann Proctor, Joan Booker, and Carol Peavy.

WE OUGHTA RECOGNIZE . . . Annette Robertson and Julian Franklin who are working hard as leading players in the coming play production and to the rest of the hard-working cast and crew . . . the new officers of the Mercer Players . . . the new members of Sigma Mu . . . Sylvia Smith and Carolyn McElveen for winning scholarships . . . Pan-Hellenic for their wonderful plan to adopt a war orphan to support . . . to the new BSU officers . . . the addition to the family of Mr. and Mrs Cecil Day. (Cecil and Uldine) to the new officers of WAA . . . to the new officers of Pan-Hellenic.

WE OUGHT'A SAY . . . Welcome back to Miss Brown who spent several days last week in Washington, D. C. . . Hope you get well soon to Miss Pitman who has been ill for several days . . . Nice to see Dot Dodson, former student, visiting on the campus last weekend as Louise Caudle's weekend guest . . . We envy you to Peggy Carlisle and Ray Neal, who are getting to eat at so many banquets "just for singing".
