

Socially Speaking

by Charlotte Moore

Winter is icumen in. It has done come. I don't like it and I heartily disapprove of any one who does. In fact I am so upset about it I can't write a society column. Finis.

P. S. I have a few things to say however.

One is that I am happy to announce some ROMANTIC items: No. 1, Sue Partin and Guy Wade are pinned. No. 2, Wynelle Knowles and Tom Hoogerland are pinned. No. 3, Ronnie Wilbanks is pinned to Joan Erbach, a Wesleyanne. On the "going steady" list are John Kennedy and Cecil Carroll, Phil Platt and Janice Oats. Congratulations, one and all.

I've got to mention a few more lucky people too. Beth White has been tapped for Alpha Psi Omega. Doug Skelton and Hugh Parker are newly-initiated brothers in SAE.

The ATO's held a successful sorority open house last Wednesday night. Their theme was "This way your Life". The ADPI's had their open house this Wednesday night (the one two days ago).

I hear the Kappa Alpha's found it too cold to scale Tallulah Gorge this time, but that the houseparty was great fun. The Phi Delt's will leave this afternoon for their houseparty at Lake Blackshear.

The Chi Omega pledges are going to treat the sisters and their dates to a party tomorrow night. The Sigma Nu pldge class also gave a party last Saturday night. Pledges sure are nice people to know.

Compliments are due Ida Jane Hicks on an impressive performance last Thursday and Friday nights. Congratulations to Iris Balcom, Shirley Davie, Janice Powell, Janice Webb, Carol Atkinson and Sally Hawkins—the new military sponsors.

The SAE's held a "Shipwreck Party" last Saturday night at the Lanier Hotel. Good time was had by all.

I think I am going to get a tin cup and take up a collection to heat the Cluster Office (the Cluster Igloo, I should say). I feel like the little Match Gir, and my fingers are getting numb. The nonsense has come to an end.

Secretarial Scholarships Offered Girls

Two national scholarships for college senior girls are offered for 1958-1959 by the Katharine Gibbs School. These awards were established in 1935 as a memorial to Mrs Katharine M. Gibbs, founder and first president of the school.

Each scholarship consists of full tuition ($785) for the secretarial training course, plus an additional cash award of $500, totaling $1,285. The winners may select any one of the four Gibbs schools for their training—Boston, New York, Montclair, or Providence.

Each college or university may recommend two candidates, and each candidate must have this official endorsement. Students who may be interested in competing for one of these Katharine Gibbs awards may obtain full information from the college placement bureau.

Westminster Fellowship Group Starts On Campus

Presbyterian students and faculty members met here last Monday to begin a local Westminster Fellowship.

Marty Layfield, one of the leaders of the group said that "the group was small, but the seeds of future growth were planted."

A second meeting has been set for Monday, Nov. 18, and interested Presbyterians are invited.

SAE Initiates

Sigma Alpha Epsilon initiated two neophytes in special ceremonies Sunday afternoon.

Initiated were Doug Skelton, Gainesville, and Hugh Parker, Macon. Both are sophomores and both pledged SAE last spring quarter.
