

CLASS of '59
members:

THE EVENTS DURING THE SENIOR CLASS SPY AT MERCER
 The 125th Anniversary of Mercer Down the street with a parade of floats and bands. The floats will feature a parade of floats and bands. The floats will feature a parade of floats and bands. The floats will feature a parade of floats and bands.

Across the street from the Mercer High School is the site of the Superwood II building. It is a site of the Superwood II building. It is a site of the Superwood II building. It is a site of the Superwood II building.

Senior Class Day To Be Observed May 19

Will Present Sound System

Senior Class will present a sound system for the students during their farewell party to the school. The system is located in the gym and lobby. Music will be provided from local radio station X. Senior Class is paying the cost of having the system installed and to be able to pay some part of the cost of having the system installed. The Student Activities Office will assume the responsibility after the system is installed.

SENIOR DAY PROGRAM
Processional	Mary Jane Griffin
Invocation	Juanita Tanner, Senior Class secretary
Special Music	Johnny Johnson
Dedication of Cauldron	Ida Jane Hicks
Presentation of Class Gift	Norman Burnes, chairman, gift committee
Presentation of Class History	Brannon Thompson, chairman, history committee
Introduction of Alumni President	Jerry Vines, Senior Class vice-president
Challenge To Senior Class	Mr. Harold McCart, president Mercer Alumni Association
Presentation of Mortarboard to rising Senior President	Sara Cordell, Senior Class president
Recessional

Mr. and Mrs. Spright Dowell will give the address at 7:30 p.m. on May 19. This is a day at Mercer to honor the seniors with a local Saturday tradition custom long observed years ago.

The program will be held in the gymnasium and will feature a professional band and orchestra. This is the first season of this sort at Mercer in recent years.