SPORTSCOPE

By CHARLIE ETHERIDGE

After the urging of innumerable readers of this column, I shall now endeavor to write a sports column on Mercer University.

The sports scene on the Bear campus, is shall we say, very active at the present date. There is football (intramural), basketball (practice) and various other sports (three rival fraternity men with a sorority pledge).

The intramural football picture begins to take shape with Phi Delta Theta and Sigma Nu owning the only unblemished records. Kappa Sigma has only a 6-6 tie with SAE to mar its slate and ATO still threatens with only one defeat, that at the hands of the Snakes of SN. (By the time you read this the entire picture will have changed, so disregard the rest of the column.) The Willards meet the Snakes Thursday and somebody will no longer have a spotless record.

Mercer's contribution to NAIA basketball and the practice schedule of several good teams including Tampa U., U. of Georgia, (despite everything Red Lawson could do), U. of Chattanooga (rah Butch!), Miss. Southern and Spring Hill College will feature returning lettermen Donnie Veal, Jackie Anderson, Frankie Edwards, Jimmy Milton, Butch Clifton, Joe Dulick and Richard Fritch. Two junior college transfers, Russell Vennes and Ray Hardman, ought to brighten the offensive picture as both hit the basket consistently.

The greatest thing to happen in the way of sports on the Mercer campus will probably take place some Saturday night in the near future as the film club tries to force Alpha Phi Omega to lower their prices on movies with an injunction from some senate subcommittee and the incurring melee should satisfy every fan of any sport.

Amnote Wrestles Tues. Night

Mercer law student Dick Amnote will make his local wrestling debut here Tuesday night at the city auditorium at 8:00 p. m. He will fight Al Galento, a former southeastern champion.

Amnote, an honor graduate of Tampa University, was featured in a sports story in the Cluster last week.

A son of French parents, Amnote will also be co-operating with the Mercer physical education department this year in a wrestling program.

'60 Bear Players Are Reviewed

By Jere L. Key

Previewing the 1960-61 Mercer Bears finds a squad with more depth and experience. Fundamentally, it is the best team Mercer has had in several seasons. Shooting ability and rebounding are much better than last year, but last year's problem still remains: no height. The Bears will have to depend on speed and the fast break to win many of their ball games.

Coach Wilder is beginning his fifth season as Mercer Mentor. He graduated from Mercer in 1952, lettering in basketball and baseball. He was chosen the outstanding player in the Dixie Conference, and was selected for the all-state senior college team.

LETTERMEN

Donnie Veal, guard, 6'0", 165 lbs. Senior from Macon, Ga. An outstanding guard for the last three seasons, Veal begins his last year with the Bears. The leading scorer in last year's team, he posted an 8.0 scoring average. He is the team's only senior.

Frankie Edwards, forward, 5'2", 185 lbs. Junior from Macon, Ga. Another starter from last year's team, Edwards posted a 9.7 average. He is an excellent jumper and rebounder.

Joe Dulick, center, 6'3", 185 lbs. Sophomore from Hometown, Pa. He was the outstanding freshman in last year's team. His 5.9 average was top for the first year men. With a year's experience behind him, he should be a big man in the Bear's attack.

Butch Clifton, guard, 6'0", 165 lbs. Sophomore from Albany, Ga. Lettered as a freshman last year. He started several times at guard and posted a 4.3 average. Butch will be counted on heavily this year.

RETURNEES

Jim Milton, forward, 6'3", 175 lbs. Junior from Atlanta, Ga. Jim is the leading rebounder and second high scorer for the first part of last season. He is an excellent rebounder and probably the best defensive man on the squad. Jackie Anderson, guard, 5'7", 140 lbs. Junior from Statesboro, Ga. Jackie has seen service during the last two seasons. He is a good ball handler and playmaker. His desire and hustle makes up for his lack of height.

J. W. Spivey, guard, 6'0", 165 lbs. Junior from Macon, Ga. J.

W. saw service at guard last year. He is a fine all around ball player and should see considerable service this year.

Richard Fritch, forward, 6'2", 185 lbs. Sophomore from Wierdale, Fla. Richard is much improved over last year. He is a good shot and a fine defensive player. He should play a lot of ball this season.

Bill Pearce, center, 6'3", 185 lbs. Sophomore from Columbus, Ga. Bill is a strong and rugged ball player. He has a great desire to succeed and is improving every day.

TRANSFERS

Ray Hardeman, guard, 6'2", 170 lbs. Junior from Crawford, Ga. Outstanding shooter and hustler, Ray gives us a second guard who is capable of scoring in the double figures. He was all state junior college at Young Harris.

Russell Vennes, forward, 6'2", 175 lbs. Junior from Fort Valley, Ga. Russell transferred from Gordon Military College. He is a good rebounder and hustler. Should see plenty of action.

FRESHMAN

Gus Garcsar, guard, 5'10", 155 lbs. Freshman from Hometown, Pa. An outstanding freshman guard, Gus is a hard worker. He has a quick shot, and with experience should develop into a fine ball player.

Curtis Lockridge, center, 6'4", 185 lbs. Freshman from Smyrna, Ga. A strong, rugged rebounder, Curtis is adjusting fast to the college game. With experience he will help us at center. He is the tallest man on the team.

Roy Speight, forward, 6'0", 165 lbs. Freshman from Unadilla, Ga. Roy is a good jumper and is developing into a good defensive player. Also an excellent passer, he should become a fine forward.

Jack Malaier, guard, 5'11", 160 lbs. Freshman from Pineview, Ga. Jack is improving fast as a freshman. He needs game experience, but he has potential.

Tennis Review

In the tennis matches Thursday the KA's downed the M I M A squad. They won all three single matches in only six sets. Carl Benson won by sets of 6-4, 6-4; Tommy Martin by sets of 6-1, 6-1; and Preston Gilmore by 6-3, 6-2.

In the other event of the afternoon the KA's defeated the ATO team, also winning in only six sets. Bobby Baer, Jim Willingham, and Hunt Sanders preformed this deed with sets of 6-1, 6-1, 6-1; and 6-4, 6-4, respectively.

Wednesday the Snakes took on the Togs and the Atoms receive a bye. The winner of the Snake-Toga match will play the Crescents Monday and M I M A plays the Willards.

AT ATHENS

BSUers See Ga. Game

Mercer BSU members witnessed Georgia's trouncing of Tulsa last Saturday as part of the recreational activities of the BSU state convention.

BSUers were admitted to the game as guests of the student body of the University of Georgia. Over fifteen hundred members took part in the convention which was held at the First Baptist Church in Athens last weekend.

Conventioners heard Dr. Roy McClain, of Atlanta deliver the keynote address on Friday night, kicking off a program which included Alec Hopper, well-known chalk artist; Robert C. Norman, prominent Augusta attorney and Dr. Howard D. Olive, Southern Baptist missionary to the Philippine Islands. Dr. Allen W. Graves, head of the department of religious education at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, was also included on the program.

Special music was provided by almost every school present. Among the best received was Mercer's Tommy Storey-Ronnie Richardson-John McKelvey-Wallace Dorn quartet, augmented at the convention by a girls' trio consisting of Barbara Burkett, Juanita Johnson and Beth Powell. Tommy Storey, as state music chairman of BSU, directed much of the convention singing.

A group of about fifty persons represented Mercer.

HOLE IN THE AIR!
