

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER HERE ONLY THIS WEEK

A dead-line was drawn today on pictures for the 1925 Cauldron, the staff of Mercer's year book announces. The photographer in the Library making pictures: As old cuts may be used, it becomes imperative for those wishing representation to have their photographs made, it is said.

This year's Cauldron is to be called the "Democratic Editor" in which every one being represented at all will have a complete write-up. For the first time in Cauldron history, individual representation is to be given to freshmen.

Despite the reduction in price, the book will be greatly enlarged, the plans show. A new feature is the summer school section which contains a number of co-eds, post-graduates and the "Schoolmasters Club."

The book has been increased 32 pages and a No. 4 instead of the usual No. 2 cover is to be used. An increase of 100 books over last year's sale is expected this year, an issue of 450 copies being planned. Georgia high and prep schools are to receive 200 copies through the alumni association.

Martin C. Burghard is editor-in-chief of the Cauldron and Floyd S. Cantrell is business manager. They report that they have opened an office in the Y. M. C. A. building.

Things to worry about—

The freshman who began singing "Mercer's Colors Are the Red and the Black" the other night.

Y. M. C. A.'S WELCOME

The Y. M. C. A. takes this opportunity to welcome again every student entering the University, both new and old.

As most of you know, we had our first get-together meeting Thursday evening and everybody shook hands. The program, too, consisted of songs, a solo by Mr. Wells, and two minute talks from several of the old fellows.

It is the purpose of the Y. M. C. A. to put on an entertaining, interesting and uplifting program three evenings in each week. Tuesday evening we shall have a member of the faculty or a town man to come out and speak to us. Wednesday evening the program shall be entirely a musical program. Thursday evening some member of the student body will be secured to give us a short talk.

We invite you to come out and spend thirty minutes of your time just after supper with us—a time when you can't concentrate on your studies well.

Y. M. C. A. Cabinet.

Things to worry about—

"Red" Simmons' wheat field activities could easily parallel Gulliver's travels, from all accounts.

PHI DELTA TO MEET

The Phi Delta literary society will hold its first meeting of the year on Monday night at 6:30 in the Phi-Delta hall of the library building.

W. A. Bootle, time-honored and war-worn warrior of many engagements with oratorical opponents of Mercer and the Phi Delta, will give an address of welcome to new men.

The virtues of the Phi Delta society will be set forth by J. E. Cook. A violin solo will be given by Mr. R. F. McKoy, from Rome, Ga. All new men are expected by the university authorities to unite with one of the two societies.

Things to worry about—

A growing list of profs and stodes are becoming engulfed in the sea of matrimony.

TO PRODUCE 2 PLAYS

The Mercer Players, the dramatic club, are preparing for another season according to Adiel E. Moncrief, president of the club.

The Players have several plays under consideration, but have not made a final selection. Plans also are being made for several road trips. Two plays are to be produced this year.

Some of the members of the club who have already returned to school are, Hamilton Hall, Bill Cook, Martin Burghard, Gene Massey, Charles Townsend, Jeff McComb, Monard Parnock, A. E. Moncrief and others.

MERCER'S 1924 FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

- Sept. 27—University of Georgia, Athens.
 - Oct. 4—Syracuse University, Syracuse, N. Y.
 - Oct. 11—Furman University, Greenville, S. C.
 - Oct. 18—Chattanooga University, Macon.
 - Oct. 25—Howard College, Macon.
 - Nov. 1—Loyola University, New Orleans, La.
 - Nov. 8—Wofford College, Macon.
 - Nov. 14—University of Florida, Macon.
 - Nov. 22—Oglethorpe University, Atlanta.
 - Nov. 27—Mississippi College, Macon (Thanksgiving).
- Freshman Schedule, 1924.
- Oct. 11—Locust Grove Institute, Macon.
 - Oct. 17—Auburn Freshmen, Macon.
 - Nov. 1—Georgia Tech Freshmen, Atlanta.
 - Nov. 8—University of Georgia Freshmen, Atlanta.
 - Nov. 21—Georgia Military College, Macon.

GREEN SWEATER CUBS PLAY LIKE REAL BEARS

(Continued from page one) on this year's junior Orange Whirlwind.

Several Show Promise

Take the 180-pound fullback, Guy Smalley, of Lincolnton High. This boy has been butting himself through the Bear line for gains of five or sometimes ten yards with every time he tucks the oval in the crook of his arm. His gains are not occasional, but consistent. What he may do only be left to conjecture.

Ralph Skelton, of Hartwell and with a year of college experience can late of the Dahlonge Aggies, has displayed leadership over his Cub eleven in the few scrimmages of the week easily comparable to his varsity opponents.

An end who has waded through any defense set before him on the Orange and Black turf and whose defense is about as hard to get through as any other set up, is that of "Cutey" Butts, formerly of G. M. C. "Tiny Bit" Pierce, his schoolmate, now at tackle with the frosh, likewise bids fair to make a name for himself.

Among the applicants now under "Tink's" wing are: Carwell, Waycross High guard; Forrester, of Piedmont College; Sheffield, of Locust Grove Institute; Louis McDonald, brother to Eli, the varsity tackle; Barney Davis, of Ashburn High; Farrar Smith, brother to "Crook"; Jake Massey, halfback of Hartwell; Clatt, Lincolnton High, half; Cargile, Lanier High, quarter; Davis, Madison High, tackle; Williams, Lincolnton High; and Jack Rogers, locally known baseball pitcher, who is candidate for tackle.

Things to worry about—

It is reported that students at the University of Georgia are betting on the outcome of tomorrow's Bear-Bulldog fracas.

BICYCLE CHAMPION ARRIVES AT MERCER

In the early days of Mercer boys probably can't to enter school riding in ex-carts. In Sept. 12, B. Frank Dowling, from Miami, Fla., arrived in Macon to enter the Freshman class after riding eight hundred miles from his home to Macon in three days. His bicycle is of the costly racing type, imported from England.

Dowling is the second fastest bicycle rider in the state of Florida. His time in a five mile race for the championship, the past summer, was 11 minutes and 32 seconds. He is secretary of the Miami Riding Club, one of the oldest racing organizations in the country. He was a member of the track team in high school and plans to enter this branch of sports at Mercer.

PROMINENT EDITORS ARE TO SPEAK THIS TERM

(Continued from page one) He announced, although no dates have been set.

Number Invited

James A. Hollomon, assistant editor of the Atlanta Constitution, and political writer, will speak. Dr. Weaver has been promised.

William Cole Jones, chief editorial writer of The Atlanta Journal, Mercer graduate and former instructor in English at Mercer, also will appear here.

Major John S. Cohen, editor of the Atlanta Journal, and Hon. Clark Howell, editor of the Constitution, have been invited to offer addresses in the series, but word has not been had from them as to their acceptance as yet.

Col. John Temple Graves, editor of the Hendersonville, N. C., Daily Times and former prominent Georgian, has already announced his intention of speaking here.

Richard H. Edmonds, editor of the Manufacturers' Record, of Baltimore, wrote Editor Hamilton that he would not be able to be present, but would compose an address to be read on "Journalism and its Duty to Humanity."

PLEA FOR CLEAN SPORT IS MADE BY SPEAKER

(Continued from page one) ganization in sports, which is embraced in inter-collegiate athletics.

Dr. Weaver introduced the new faculty members, H. Louis Batts, Edgar E. Folk and Dr. D. H. Kerchner, and announced that Joe A. McClain would assist in the law department faculty and W. M. Marshall would teach either English or history. Fifteen other student assistants are announced elsewhere in the Cluster.

Arrangements had been completed for the series of lectures to be given by Dr. W. T. Whitley, noted Bible historian, at Mercer next January, it was said, and that editors and prominent writers of the nation were being booked for a lecture series here by Thomas J. Hamilton, editor of the Augusta Chronicle.

A holiday for Monday was announced in event the Bears romp on the Bulldogs in the Saturday engagement.

FRANK ETHERIDGE TO BE CHAPEL SPEAKER

Speakers for Mercer chapel services during the fall term are already being booked by Dr. A. P. Montague, he has announced. Chapel services, as usual, will not be held on Monday, but on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday will be under faculty direction. On Friday chapel, which is held from 10:20 to 10:45, will be given over to the student body.

More emphasis is to be placed on having prominent business men address the collegians, Dr. Montague says. With this in view, J. H. Carmichael, of Jackson, Ga., and owner of the chain of Georgia Grocery stores, of this city, and Frank S. Etheridge, Atlanta capitalist and recent donor of $100,000 to Mercer, have been secured to speak.

F. J. Paxon proprietor of one of Atlanta's largest department stores, has also been invited to appear, it was said. A regular student pianist and chorister will be chosen for chapel services this year, it is planned.

M BOOK APPEARS WITH RULES TO GUIDE RATS

(Continued from page one) own song and others, and the class having the best song will be awarded a palm of victory.

Of special note to freshmen is that part of the "M" book which includes the "Freshman 'Shall-Nots'". No freshman shall smoke in academic buildings, but may in their rooms. All smoking at any time during their stay must be with corn cob pipes, the regulations state.

No loitering by freshman on the portion of the campus in charge of the Senior Class is permitted. Insignia of any school but Mercer are also tabooed.

Cheer practices, parades, and all games are to be attended by the hapless yearlings, the book says. All members of the student body shall stand when the President enters chapel, and shall tip their hats to all faculty members on the campus. Classes shall leave the chapel in groups, rather than pell-mell.

Violations of these and any other regulations are to be handled by the Student Tribunal.

GRIZZLY TEAM ORDERED TO BUTCHER BULLDOGS

(Continued from page one)

game on Sanford Field. At center will be "Bo-dick" Carson, 170 pounds; Captain "Red" Simmons, 180, and Eli McDonald, 190, will officiate at tackles. The guard positions are to have Bela Lancaster, 175 pounder and "Sley" Dunn, with the same weight. End is to be balanced by two 165-pounders, "Crook" Smith and aky Tipton.

"Rusty" Lawrence, leader of last year's yearling eleven, will call signals from quarter. Lawrence weighs 160 pounds. Halves will consist of "Kid" Cecil, leader of last year's varsity, who weighs in at 165 pounds. His running mate will be John Parks, who drops to 160 pounds.

The fullback point is to alternate possibly between three stellar performers, Dave Rice, 180, being the featherweight of the trio. Sid Ellison ranks as middle weight, with 185 pounds, while "Jew" Stein will fill the role of heavy, pushing the scales to 200 pounds even.

Things to worry about—

Ninety and nine Mercerites started Atheneward this morning; the hundredth went astray.

NEEL'S

Welcome to Mercer and Neel's Mercer Men

Come in and get acquainted with the store that caters to the fashions and fancies of college boys.

Hickey-Freeman and Fashion Park Clothes

Have you seen the Yellow Slicker Raincoats? Absolutely waterproof Only $6.50

Our Campus Representatives "Country" Houston "Red" Markhall Ed Smith See them!

John Markhall

One Price to Everybody 520 Cherry St. Phone 2800

Glad You're Back, Mercer

WE ARE OFFICIAL DISTRIBUTORS FOR FRESHMAN CAPS

See our campus representative, Thos. Whaley, about that last thing in collegiate clothes.

Clothing Dept.—First Floor

DANNENBERG

462 Third St.

HUNNICUTT'S For Hart Schaffner & Marx

Clothes, Suits and Overcoats

for Mercer Boys

Fellows, you are always welcome here. We carry the best this country affords

C. H. HUNNICUTT CLOTHING CO.

317-319 Third Street

HART SCHAFFNER & MARK CLOTHES