Collection Description

Historical Note

Youth Leadership Bibb County was established as a “community awareness and leadership development program” in 1994. It had its origins in Project Link, a high school counterpart of Leadership Macon that began about 1989. YLBC was part of the Macon 2000 Partnership and its Task Force on Student Motivation chaired by H. Lee Perdue, who went on to lead YLBC. In 2004 YLBC partnered with the Mercer Center for Service-Learning and Community Development. The group ceased annual programming in 2007.

Scope and Content Note

Records document the activities of Youth Leadership Bibb County from its inception through 2007. No records have been received for 2006. Materials are arranged chronologically by year although they may not be in order within each folder.
