

HARRY POTTER'S WORLD

RENAISSANCE SCIENCE,
MAGIC, AND MEDICINE

Harry Potter's World letterhead with owl

“There was a lot more to magic, as Harry quickly found out, than waving your wand and saying a few funny words.”

Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone, J. K. Rowling

Jack Tarver Library Exhibit Dates: September 18-November 5 with Artifacts from the Museum of Arts & Sciences
1300 Edgewood Avenue, 2nd (Main) floor

Elves and Werewolves and Voldemort! Oh, My:
Social Commentary in the Fantasy World of Harry Potter

Dr. Gary Richardson, September 21 @ 6:30 p.m.

Medical School Auditorium

(reception & special music to follow)

An Englishman or an Everyman?

Reading Harry Potter across Cultures

Dr. Mary Raschko, October 5 @ 6:30 p.m.

Medical School Auditorium

“Twilight is not Good for Maidens”:

Gender, Sexuality and Family in the Twilight Series

Dr. Anya Silver, October 12 @ 6:30 p.m.

Medical School Auditorium

Polyjuice Potion or Pensieve?: Reading and Remembering
'through a glass darkly' in the Novels of Harry Potter

Dr. Deneen Senasi, October 19 @ 6:30 p.m.

Medical School Auditorium

Harry's Hot Plates

October 20 @ dinner

Fresh Food Company

Medicine & Science Panel

Drs. Alice House, Jennifer Look & Dale Moore, October 26 @ 5:30 p.m.

Medical School Auditorium

“Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows, Pts. 1 & 2” and Costume Contest (dress up as your favorite HP character)

QuadWorks, November 4 @ 7:00 p.m.

TBD

Use your smartphone
to scan the QR code
and view more events.

@ <http://libraries.mercer.edu/tarver/exhibits/harry-potter>

