

Octo. 14, 1868.

My darling Wife,

My. Cum-
ringham encloses herewith a letter and a check for $50.⁰⁰ with the request to get something for her. You will have to write your name
across the back as Mr. Cunningham has done his and write it
just this way:

"Mrs. Eugene Mitchell" Present it at any Banking House and it will be cashed.
Yours Bro & Cat

knows, but he might be absent, and consequently I am particular.

I rec^d. intelligence from you to-day by telegraph.
Mr. Sanillo inquired of Col. Logan, who stated that you left for Atlanta tomorrow 10th, and I'll write this letter to meet you there, I shall come for you Sunday, and if you can come I shall bring you home. Bless your darling heart,
I'm most crazy

to see you once more.
I had the carpet put down today and will finish moving tomorrow
I believe will have a very pleasant home
at Mr. Cary's -

Adore, darling wife,
kiss me good bye
and get ready to come home with old husband. Kiss
little baby for papa.

I am in haste
Your affectionate husband,
Augustus
