J. René Hawkins

August 30, 1924 - March 30, 1971

B.B.A., 1947, J.D., 1950, University of Georgia;
Member of the firm of Bloch, Hall, Hawkins & Owens,
Macon, Georgia; Lecturer in Law since 1969.

The editors and staff of the Mercer Law Review join with the faculty and staff of the Walter F. George School of Law in their expression of grief at the unexpected passing of Mr. J. René Hawkins, practicing attorney and Lecturer in Law.

We, the faculty and staff of the Walter F. George School of Law of Mercer University are deeply grieved in the passing of J. René Hawkins, who joined the faculty in 1969. We knew René as a distinguished lawyer and a competent public servant but most of all we knew him as one of us whose principal concern was related to the training of new members for the legal profession. In the class room he displayed the same dedication and excellence which had brought him distinction in all his endeavors and he imparted to his students not only a high regard for the reward of effort and scholarship but a basic commitment to professional integrity. And surely not the least of his attributes was a charming personality that expressed on all occasions a rare combination of warmth and friendliness.

We shall miss René.
