A NEW COVER

For the past six years, the cover of the Mercer Law Review has depicted a scene of the law school on the Mercer University campus. With the move of the law school to its new home comes a new cover. This photograph is taken from behind the building, and emphasized is its most striking feature—the bell tower that overlooks the City of Macon.

The Mercer Law Review is designed to allow contributors free expression of their views on subjects of interest to the legal profession and to furnish students an opportunity to acquire experience in legal writing. Publication of material in the Review does not necessarily indicate the Review's agreement with the views expressed.

The Review is grateful to The Harrison Company for furnishing advance sheets used in the preparation of the Review.
