

Dedication

Yonna Windham Shaw
Business Manager
Mercer Law Review

This issue of the Mercer Law Review is gratefully dedicated to Yonna W. Shaw, Business Manager of the Mercer Law Review. Undaunted in the face of pending deadlines, irritable printers, insistent authors, panicked editors, broken equipment, missing footnotes, and illegible editing, Yonna has faithfully served the Law Review for almost fourteen years. Each year, a new crop of anxious editors and members quickly learn to depend on Yonna's experience and knowledge, comforted in the assurance that, somehow, Yonna will "take care of it." For your many years of service to the Mercer Law Review, we thank you, Yonna, and for the sake of future editors and members, we hope for many years of service to come.
